The Leadbeater Case : a Reply to the President's Letter of November, 1908 Société théosophique, 1908 The Letter of Aristeeas, 1918 Letter of Aristeeas pseudepigraphical work of pseudo history produced in Alexandria probably in the mid 2nd century BC to promote the cause of Judaism Though the size and prestige of the Jewish community had already secured for itself a definite place in Alexandrian society and serious anti Semitism had not yet gained currency the Jewish community was in conflict While some Jews embraced Greek culture and philosophy others refused any rapprochement with Hellenistic culture The author's purpose was to present Judaism in a favourable light to pagans and make strict observance of religious laws attractive to Hellenistic Jews The author assumed the name of a 2nd century BC writer and purported to give a contemporary account of the translation of the Hebrew Pentateuch the first five books of the Bible into Greek He presented himself as a pagan admirer of Judaism who held a high position in the court of Ptolemy II Philadelphus 285 246 BC in Alexandria The writer used current Hellenistic literary conventions and the technical language of the Alexandrian court but his Greek style and several historical inaccuracies indicate that he was a deliberate archaist His concern for the welfare of Jewish slaves his romantic picture of Palestinian Jewry and his efforts to explain the theory behind Jewish dietary laws mark him as a Jew rather than a pagan
