ON HER WEDDING DAY

My darling daughter,

Seeing you in your wedding dress today, walking down the aisle with such grace and radiance, fills me with an indescribable sense of love, pride, and gratitude. You have grown into a beautiful, intelligent, and strong woman, and I have no doubt that you will continue to achieve great things throughout your life.

As your parent, I want you to know that I am infinitely proud of you and will continue to be your anchor and support system through every journey life takes you on. I am confident that you and your partner will build a beautiful life together, one that is filled with laughter, joy, and shared experiences.

Remember that a successful partnership is built on love, trust, and respect. Always communicate openly with one another, support each other's dreams, and cherish each other in both good times and bad. I am confident that you and your partner will create a beautiful home filled with happiness, adventure, and love.

As your parent, my love for you knows no bounds, and I will always be here for you whenever you need me. Remember that although your name has changed, you will always be the light of my life. My heart overflows with love for you, my daughter, today and always.

With all my love,

[Your Name]

Ancient Love Letters Anna Tiziana Drago, Owen Hodkinson, 2023-01-30 This volume investigates the form of love letters and erotic letters in Greek and Latin up to the 7th Century CE encompassing both literary and documentary letters the latter inscribed and on papyrus and prose and poetry The potential for and utility of treating this large and diverse corpus as a genre is examined To this end approaches from ancient literary criticism and modern theory of genre are made mutual influences between the documentary and the literary form are sought and origins in proto epistolary poetic texts are examined In order to examine the boundaries of a form limit cases which might have less claim to the label love letter are compared with more clear cut examples A series of case studies focuses on individual letters and letter collections Some case studies situate their subjects within the history and literary evolution of the love letter using both intertextuality and comparative approaches others placing them in their cultural and historical contexts particularly uncovering the contribution of epistolarity to erotic discourse and to the history of sexuality and gender in diverse eras and locations within Classical to Late Antiquity

The Children of Castletown House The Hon. Sarah Conolly-Carew, 2012-09-01 Castletown House Ireland's largest and earliest Palladian style house was built between 1722 and 1729 for William Conolly Speaker of the Irish House of Commons and the wealthiest commoner in Ireland In 1967 the house was bought by the Hon Desmond Guinness founder of the Irish Georgian Society and opened to the public In 1994 ownership of the house was transferred to the State and it is now managed by the Office of Public Works Castletown House a history is the story of that house written by the children who grew up there Baroness Diana Wrangle Conolly Carew the Hon Sarah McPherson their brother the Hon Gerald Edward Ian Maitland Carew In this fascinating history the character of the house is brought to life through its former residents together with stories of their Olympic medals the chance survival of the house through the Civil War and tales of visiting royalty to the greatest of Ireland's great houses

The Pillar of Fire; Or, Israel in Bondage Joseph Holt Ingraham, 1896

Judaic Technologies of the Word Gabriel Levy, 2014-10-14 Judaic Technologies of the Word argues that Judaism does not exist in an abstract space of reflection Rather it exists both in artifacts of the material world such as texts and in the bodies brains hearts and minds of individual people More than this Judaic bodies and texts both oral and written connect and feed back on one another Judaic Technologies of the Word examines how technologies of literacy interact with bodies and minds over time The emergence of literacy is now understood to be a decisive factor in religious history and is central to the transformations that took place in the ancient Near East in the first millennium BCE This study employs insights from the cognitive sciences to pursue a deep history of Judaism one in which the distinctions between biology and culture begin to disappear

Encyclopedia of Asian American Folklore and Folklife Jonathan H. X. Lee, Kathleen Nadeau, 2010-12-21 This comprehensive compilation of entries documents the origins transmissions and transformations of Asian American folklore and folklife Equally instructive and intriguing the Encyclopedia of Asian American Folklore and Folklife provides an illuminating overview of Asian American folklore as a way of life. Surveying the histories, peoples, and cultures of numerous Asian American ethnic and cultural groups, the work covers everything from ancient Asian folklore, folktales, and folk practices that have been transmitted and transformed in America to new expressions of Asian American folklore and folktales unique to the Asian American historical and contemporary experiences. The encyclopedia's three comprehensive volumes cover an extraordinarily wide range of Asian American cultural and ethnic groups as well as mixed race and mixed heritage Asian Americans. Each group section is introduced by a historical overview essay followed by short entries on topics such as ghosts and spirits, clothes and jewelry, arts and crafts, home decorations, family and community, religious practices, rituals, holidays, music, foodways, literature, traditional healing, and medicine, and much, much more. Topics and theories are examined from crosscultural and interdisciplinary perspectives to add to the value of the work.
