Connon,2000 This book assembles fifteen essays by different hands on dramatic literature written in French in the twentieth century The great majority of the essays deal with plays published after 1939 Each chapter is an original study of aspects of the work of a given author that have been overlooked or inadequately treated in the scholarly literature to date Most of the greatest French dramatists of the century are represented in the volume although several of the authors studied are not primarily known for their contributions to dramatic literature while the inclusion of a provincial playwright and of two Quercois dramatists seeks to surprise readers by reminding them that Paris does not enjoy a total monopoly on French speaking theatre The book has as its primary aim to illustrate the vitality and the sheer variety of drama written in French during the century The Aesthetics of Hate Sandrine Sanos,2012-10-24 The Aesthetics of Hate examines the writings of a motley collection of interwar far right intellectuals showing that they defined Frenchness in racial gendered and sexual terms A broad ambitious cultural and intellectual history the book offers a provocative reinterpretation of a topic that has long been the subject of controversy In works infused with rhetorics of abjection disgust and dissolution such writers as Maurin Brasillach Céline and Blanchot imagined the nation through figures deemed illegitimate or inferior Jews colonial subjects homosexuals women Sanos argues that these intellectuals offered an aesthetics of hate reinventing a language of far right nationalism by appealing to the realm of beauty and the sublime for political solutions By acknowledging the constitutive relationship of antisemitism and colonial racism at the heart of these canonical writers nationalism this book makes us rethink how aesthetics and politics function how race is imagined and defined how gender structured far right thought and how we conceive of French intellectualism and fascism Pamphlets on Industrial Management and the Taylor System ,1919 British and Foreign State Papers Great Britain. Foreign Office,Great Britain. disseminate thought whose objective was to encourage political action What kinds of networks did they succeed in establishing in the interwar period Who were these intellectuals in action What role did they play in their institutions and cultural associations activities A wider and intricate analytical framework emerges exploring right wing intellectual agents and their networks their travels and the circulation of ideas during the interwar period and on a transatlantic scale offering an original contribution to the debate on interwar authoritarian regimes and opening new possibilities for research Chapter 2 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution CC BY 4.0 license
