LES RELIGIONS DES PEUPLES NONCIVILISES ALBERT REVILLE,1883

Religion, Modernity, Globalisation François Gauthier,2019-09-30 This book argues that the last four decades have seen profound and important changes in the nature and social location of religion and that those changes are best understood when cast against the associated rise of consumerism and neoliberalism These transformations are often misunderstood and underestimated namely because the study of religion remains dependent on the secularisation paradigm which can no longer provide a sufficiently fruitful framework for analysis The book challenges diagnoses of transience and fragmentation by proposing an alternative narrative and set of concepts for understanding the global religious landscape The present situation is framed as the result of a shift from a National Statist to a Global Market regime of religion Adopting a holistic perspective that breaks with the current specialisation tendencies it charts the emergence of the State and the Market as institutions and ideas related to social order as well as their changing rapports from classical modernity to today Breaking with a tradition of Western centeredness the book offers probing enquiries into Indonesia and a synthesis of global and Western trends This long awaited book offers a bold new vision for the social scientific study of religion and will be of great interest to all scholars of the Sociology and Anthropology of religion as well as Religious Studies in general The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license
