

A Short Prayer For a Flag-Raising Ceremony

Dear God, I need to find someone to pray for our ceremony next week. The first person I ask had to back out due to sickness. I have a list of a few people to contact and I pray that one of them will accept this responsibility. It's important to our organization that there be prayer be a part of the flag-raising event. Help me find the right person quickly. And may they prepare well after they agree to do this. I ask this in the name of Jesus, Amen.

Memory, Place and Identity Danielle Drozdowski, Sarah De Nardi, Emma Waterton, 2016-05-20 This book bridges theoretical gaps that exist between the meta concepts of memory place and identity by positioning its lens on the emplaced practices of commemoration and the remembrance of war and conflict This book examines how diverse publics relate to their wartime histories through engagements with everyday collective memories in differing places Specifically addressing questions of place making displacement and identity contributions shed new light on the processes of commemoration of war in everyday urban fa ades and within generations of families and national communities Contributions seek to clarify how we connect with memories and places of war and conflict The spatial and narrative manifestations of attempts to contextualise wartime memories of loss trauma conflict victory and suffering are refracted through the roles played by emotion and identity construction in the shaping of post war remembrances This book offers a multidisciplinary perspective with insights from history memory studies social psychology cultural and urban geography to contextualise memories of war and their use by national governments perpetrators victims and in family histories Strangers in a Stranger Land John B.

Simon, 2019-08-27 What did it feel like to be an openly Jewish soldier fighting alongside German troops in WWII Could a Jewish nurse work safely in a field hospital operating theater under the supervision of German army doctors Several hundred members of Finland s tiny Jewish community found themselves in absurd situations like this yet not a single one was harmed by the Germans or deported to concentration or extermination camps In fact Finland was the only European country fighting on either side in WWII that lost not a single Jewish citizen to the Nazi s Final Solution Strangers in a Stranger Land explores the unique dilemma of Finland s Jews in the form of a meticulously researched novel Where did these immigrant Jews the last in Europe to achieve citizenship status come from What was life like from their arrival in Finland in the early nineteenth century to the time when their grandchildren perversely found themselves on the wrong side of WWII And how could young lovers plan for the future when not only their enemies but also their country s allies threatened their very existence Seven years researching Finland s National Archives plus numerous in depth interviews with surviving Finnish Jewish war veterans provide the background for a narrative exploration of love friendship and commitment but also uncertainty and terror under circumstances that were unique in the annals of The Good War The novel s protagonists Benjamin David and Rachel adopt varying survival strategies as they struggle with involvement in a brutal conflict and questions posed by their dual loyalty as Finnish citizens and Zionists committed to the creation of a Jewish homeland Tensions mount as the three young adults painfully work through a relationship love triangle and try to fulfill their commitments as both Jews and Finns while their country desperately seeks to extricate itself from an unwinnable war Voices in the Mind RM Jarman, 2010-10-29 Voices in the Mind is a miscellany of thirteen stories on a wide diversity of themes each representing a separate voice in the mind of the author The first half of the book comprises twelve pieces of typical short story length These lead into the second half which is taken up by the novella Then there was Harvey This is a saga about a rather wicked but ultimately lovable schoolboy who finds himself possessed of a unique kind of power that enables him to inflict a rare and potentially deadly form of torture upon the persons of the forces of authority at his alma mater Amongst the selection you will find humour drama suspense irony and moments of almost heart breaking pathos Hui Muslims in the Shaping of Modern China Bin CHEN,2025-11-04 Chen examines the Chinese Nationalist government's distinctive support for private Muslim teachers schools between the 1920s and 1940s and explores the complex relationship between these institutions and the Chinese state during the Republican period In 1933 the government issued the Teachers Schools Regulations mandating that all teachers schools be state run However the Nationalists viewed private Muslim teachers schools as valuable allies in their efforts to assert influence in China's Muslim dominated northwestern frontier region and deliberately refrained from enforcing the 1933 Teachers Schools Regulations on them Instead the government applied the 1933 Amended Private Schools Regulations which did not specifically address teachers schools to govern Muslim teachers schools By charting the evolving dynamics between the Nationalist state and Chinese Hui Muslims this book reevaluates the Hui Muslims role in shaping modern China Offering crucial context on the role of Islam in modern China this book is a valuable resource for scholars and students of Chinese history as well as for policymakers and journalists interested in religion in China To the Flag Richard J. Ellis,2005 Saluting the flag in public schools began as part of a national effort to Americanize immigrants Here Richard Ellis unfurls the history of the Pledge of Allegiance and of the debates and controversies that have sometimes surrounded it Scouting , Published by the Boy Scouts of America for all BSA registered adult volunteers and professionals Scouting magazine offers editorial content that is a mixture of information instruction and inspiration designed to strengthen readers abilities to better perform their leadership roles in Scouting and also to assist them as parents in strengthening families Annual Report of the Provincial Industrial School for Boys ...
