

A detailed, grayscale map of Japan serves as the background for the entire slide. The map shows the four main islands: Hokkaido, Honshu, Shikoku, and Kyushu, along with numerous smaller islands. A dense network of thin lines represents the country's extensive railway system, connecting major cities and regions. Darker, shaded areas indicate urban centers and industrial zones, particularly concentrated in the Kanto plain, the Osaka region, and along the coast. The map provides a geographical context for the book's title, which focuses on the sources of Japanese industrialization.
