Limpopo Nursing Jobs:

Global Capital's 21st Century Repositioning Rewai Makamani, Artwell Nhemachena, 2021-03-11 What happens at the interface between Afrocentricity and COVID 19 is cause for wonder in a world that is anxious to short circuit global solidarity by trampling Pan Africanism. Revolutions including the Fourth Industrial Revolution are rarely contextualised within the framework of Pan Africanism and Afrocentricity even when they are celebrated as beneficial to the world. Interfacing Afrocentricity COVID 19 Pan Africanism and the Fourth Industrial Revolution this book teases out the profound challenges of the 21st century. Calling for African solutions premised on African solidarity the book critically engages the contemporary technological solutionism and technological evangelism that undergirds the Fourth Industrial Revolution and efforts to find vaccines for COVID 19. Unflinchingly interrogating these issues the book is useful for scholars and activists in education African languages sociology social anthropology political science history religious studies development studies communication medical sciences and legal studies.

Local economies and pandemics: Marius Venter, Chané de Bruyn, 2023-12-14 The outbreak of the global COVID 19 pandemic has presented unprecedented challenges to both developed and less developed local economies. The aim of the book is to uncover the best practises in responding to a pandemic from global perspectives as well as from a trans disciplinary point of view. Scholars from various spheres in arts culture education health environment business and the public sector present their perspectives on the impacts responses and consequences for local economies and communities. As a fundamental part of LED the arts culture education health environment business and the public sector domains were some of the hardest hit by the pandemic. The pandemic has certainly exposed the weaknesses of current development policies and calls for new innovative measures in developing resilient local regions. This book will form an essential part of the development series of CENLED as it offers insight into how a global pandemic COVID 19 impacted LED in the global North and Global South and the different responses from different spheres.

Cross-border Migration: Zimbabwe - South Africa Exodus Elvis A Masawi, 2017-01-14 The tribulations and terrors of the Zimbabwean diaspora seeking economic sanctuary in South Africa.

The 4IR and the Humanities in South Africa Bhaso Ndzendze, Asheel Singh, Suzall Timm, 2024-05-28 The world is at a crossroads because of industrial change compounded by a global pandemic. Humanities and social science education is grappling with the meaning of this change to the effect that there have been some anxieties and misguided perceptions about the irrelevance of the humanities in this emerging new world. With the emergence of new technologies this book highlights the indispensable centrality of humanity and the humanities going forward. The book will provide a reference point for new and innovative approaches to the humanities in the 4IR in South Africa and Africa. Its diverse content means that it will be useful across the humanities and social science spectrum.

Mozambique's Samora Machel Allen F. Isaacman, Barbara S. Isaacman, 2020-09-08 The precipitous rise and controversial fall of a formidable African leader Samora Machel 1933 1986 the son of small town farmers led his people through a war against their Portuguese colonists and became the first president of the People's Republic of Mozambique. Machel's military successes against a colonial regime backed by South Africa, Rhodesia, the United States and its NATO allies enhanced his reputation as a revolutionary hero to the oppressed people of Southern Africa. In 1986 during the country's civil war, Machel died in a plane crash under circumstances that remain uncertain. Allen and Barbara Isaacman lived through many of these changes in Mozambique and bring personal recollections together with archival research and interviews with others who knew Machel or participated in events of the revolutionary or post-revolutionary years. Urban

Tourism in the Global South Christian M. Rogerson, Jayne M. Rogerson, 2021-07-13 This book examines and addresses the particular character of urban tourism occurring in the global South. It presents research essays on tourism in urban areas of South Africa, a country which is associated with big 5 nature tourism but where urban areas are also major tourism destinations. The book contextualizes urban tourism in South Africa as part of the other half of urban tourism, an overlooked but energetic scholarship which is emerging on urban places in the global South. The volume moves to present a collection of original material variously on national perspectives on urban tourism, following by a cluster of city-level perspectives. The last three contributions turn to the role of tourism in small towns, the bottom rung in the urban settlement system. Issues of concern include gastronomic tourism, VFR travel, airports, landscapes, climate change, AirBnB and creative tourism. Finally, as COVID-19 is potentially a defining historical moment for urban tourism, the volume incorporates historical research perspectives in order to address the overwhelming present-mindedness of mainstream urban tourism writings. The book highlights the challenges and opportunities for tourism development in the environment of the urban global South and is relevant to scholars of both tourism and urban studies as well as researchers in development studies. Migration, Crisis and Temporality at the Zimbabwe-South Africa Border Kudakwashe Vanyoro, 2024-02-29 Only 15 kilometres away from the border of Zimbabwe, Musina is an obscure town in South Africa that the media cast into the public eye in the wake of the 2008 Zimbabwean economic crisis. Taking as its starting point the arrival of thousands of displaced Zimbabwean migrants at Musina, this book presents valuable new perspectives on the temporality of migration and the governance of immobilities. The author explores the role of humanitarian actors in supporting migrants and examines the outcomes of government-led activities in the longer term. This is an insightful assessment of how state and non-state practices intertwine in the management of largely immobile people and of the importance of time in understanding African migration and borders.
