Mathematical Literacy on Statistical Measures Christian Büscher, 2018-07-14 In most countries only very limited time resources are available for statistics education within mathematics education. Thus statistics education research needs to develop teaching learning arrangements that are compact and applicable to classrooms. Christian Büscher designs and investigates a compact teaching learning arrangement which aims at mathematical and reflective knowledge about statistics. Central results include the specification of the learning content of statistical measures, an empirical reconstruction of students' learning processes towards statistical measures and the identification of students' situated reflections about mathematics within their learning processes. Using Peer Tutoring to Improve Reading Skills Keith Topping, David Duran, Hilde Van Keer, 2015-10-08 Using Peer Tutoring to Improve Reading Skills is a very practical guide offering a straightforward framework and easy to implement strategies to help teachers help pupils progress in reading. The country's political, administrative, financial and technical leaders now have to find a way to ensure the most productive distribution and use of financial resources. Many international actors are watching closely to see how this young country negotiates its path. Papua New Guinea became a major exporter of gas in 2014 when the 19bn PNG liquefied natural gas (LNG) project was completed ahead of schedule and within budget, significantly increasing the size and strength of the economy. The year ahead is likely to see PNG benefit from the further development of its hydrocarbons sector, fuelling the growth of its economy as a whole. The LNG influx also poses challenges, however, in terms of ensuring inclusive growth and productive use of the new revenues. PNG takes pride in being a final frontier of natural and cultural development, but the task ahead is to protect the country's heritage while becoming part of the global economy. The Parliamentary Debates (Hansard).
