

PLANNING AND SCHEDULING USING MICROSOFT® PROJECT 2010

This book is designed for users of software systems to integrate their work and the work of others to plan the activities of a project. With the software, scheduling is made a relatively simple process. Planning and scheduling are not the same as scheduling. Scheduling is a function of the work to be done and the resources available. Planning is the process of determining the sequence of activities from the start to the end of the project.

Microsoft Project 2010 is an advanced software system that helps you plan and schedule your work. It is a powerful tool for project management and scheduling. It is designed to help you manage your project from start to finish. It is a powerful tool for project management and scheduling. It is designed to help you manage your project from start to finish.
