Assessing Academic Literacy in a Multilingual Society Albert Weideman, John Read, Theo du Plessis, 2020-11-02 South African universities face major challenges in meeting the needs of their students in the area of academic language and literacy. The dominant medium of instruction in the universities is English and to a much lesser extent Afrikaans but only a minority of the national population are native speakers of these languages. Nine other languages can be media of instruction in schools which makes the transition to tertiary education difficult enough in itself for students from these schools. The focus of this book is on procedures for assessing the academic language and literacy levels and needs of students not in order to exclude students from higher education but rather to identify those who would benefit from further development of their ability in order to undertake their degree studies successfully. The volume also aims to bring the innovative solutions designed by South African educators to a wider international audience.

Handbook of College Reading and Study Strategy Research Rona F. Flippo, Thomas W. Bean, 2018-06-12 The most comprehensive and up to date source available for college reading and study strategy practitioners and administrators. The Third Edition of the Handbook of College Reading and Study Strategy Research reflects and responds to changing demographics as well as politics and policy concerns in the field since the publication of the previous edition. In this thorough and systematic examination of theory research and practice the Handbook offers information to help college reading teachers to make better instructional decisions, justification for programmatic implementations for administrators and a complete compendium of both theory and practice to better prepare graduate students to understand the parameters and issues of this field. The Handbook is an essential resource for professionals, researchers and students as they continue to study, research, learn and share more about college reading and study strategies. Addressing current and emerging theories of knowledge, subjects and trends impacting the field, the Third Edition features new topics such as disciplinary literacy, social media and gaming theory.

Imagined Liberation Heribert Adam, Kogila Moodley, 2013-12-01 On a spectrum of hostility towards irregular migrants, South Africa ranks on top, Germany in the middle and Canada at the bottom. South African xenophobic violence by impoverished slum dwellers is directed against fellow Africans. Why would a society that liberated itself in the name of human rights turn against people who escaped human rights violations or unlivable conditions at home? What happened to the expected African solidarity? Why do former victims become victimizers? Imagined Liberation asks what xenophobic societies can learn from other immigrant societies which avoided the backlash against multiculturalism in Europe.

Mathematical Modelling Education and Sense-making Gloria Ann Stillman, Gabriele Kaiser, Christine Erna Lampen, 2020-05-14 This volume documents on going research and theorising in the sub field of mathematics education devoted to the teaching and learning of mathematical modelling and applications. Mathematical modelling provides a way of conceiving and resolving problems in people's everyday lives as well as sophisticated new problems for society at large. Mathematical modelling and real world applications are considered as having potential for cultivating sense making in classroom settings This book focuses on the educational perspective researching the complexities encountered in effective teaching and learning of real world modelling and applications for sense making is only beginning All authors of this volume are members of the International Community of Teachers of Mathematical Modelling ICTMA the peak research body into researching the teaching and learning of mathematical modelling at all levels of education from the early years to tertiary education as well as in the workplace Annual Report Mpumalanga (South Africa).
