Investigation of the Assassination of President John F. Kennedy, 1964 American Politics and the African American Quest for Universal Freedom Hanes Walton, Robert C. Smith, 2015-10-16 This dynamic and comprehensive text from two nationally renowned scholars continues to demonstrate the profound influence African Americans have had and continue to have on American politics Through the use of two interrelated themes the idea of universal freedom and the concept of minority majority coalitions the text demonstrates how the presence of Africans in the United States affected the founding of the Republic and its political institutions and processes The authors show that through the quest for their own freedom in the United States African Americans have universalized and expanded the freedoms of all Americans

Political Communication in the Anglophone World Theodore F. Shekels, 2012-10-05 Political Communication in the Anglophone World Case Studies by Theodore F Shekels extends political communication scholarship primarily rhetorical scholarship into the extensive English language arena outside the United States and the United Kingdom While wrestling with the extent to which insights derived from and approaches used in political communication research focused on the United States can be used in other nations with different government structures different media operations and different political cultures Sheckels provides insight into a variety of political communication topics ranging from the role gender plays in campaign politics to the politics involved as one speaks upon the occasion of leaving high office This book explores how Canadian Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau used moments of media attention to push his foreign and domestic policy agenda as well as another Canadian Prime Minister Kim Campbell and the difficulties she faced because of her gender Sheckels also examines Jamaica's Michael Manley and his shift from advocating socialism to later supporting free markets and reggae artist Bob Marley and his musical shift from concern for Kingston's poor to embracing pan Africanism Popular media images of Africa are also considered as the book investigates Mwai Kibaki's attempts to unify Kenya Nelson Mandela's presidential rhetoric and Thabo Mbeki's I am an African Address Finally Sheckels goes to Australia to consider Gough Whitlam's unprecedented dismissal as prime minister and Kevin Rudd's farewell speech after being replaced by his own party members Asking new questions and using novel rhetorical approaches Political Communication in the Anglophone World illuminates how communication proceeds whether the medium be speech song website or pirouette
