Life Orientation Grade 12 2013 Paper:

Social Justice and Transformative Learning Saundra M. Tomlinson-Clarke, Darren L. Clarke, 2016-03-10 The similarities between the United States and South Africa with respect to race power oppression and economic inequities are striking and a better understanding of these parallels can provide educational gains for students and educators in both countries Through shared experiences and perspectives this volume presents scholarly work from U S and South African scholars that advance educational practice in support of social justice and transformative learning It provides a comprehensive framework for developing transformational learning experiences that facilitates leadership for social justice and a deeper understanding of the factors influencing personal national and global identity Sexual Orientation, Gender Identity, and Schooling Stephen Thomas Russell, Stacey S. Horn, 2017 Sexual Orientation Gender Identity and Schooling brings together contributions from a diverse group of researchers policy analysts and education advocates from around the world to synthesize the practice and policy implications of research on sexual orientation gender identity and schooling

Towards a holistic approach to support learners at risk of interrupted development Macalane J. Malindi, Johnnie Hay, Thabo Makhalemele, 2024-02-23 The COVID 19 pandemic and the restrictions that came with it led to unprecedented disruptions in learner development and put them at risk of poor developmental outcomes It is thus important that the extent of the disruption on their development and the support needs of learners be investigated Researching the impact of the disruption should focus on holistic development In this book the authors use multiple research approaches and methods of gathering data in their respective fields to examine the impact of the disruption and determine the support needs of learners Data gathered through the different methods are processed and findings are presented The findings have implications for both practice and future research in the fields of inclusive education learner support educational psychology movement education Life Orientation and curriculum development Handbook of Pulp & Paper Terminology Gary A. Smook, 1990

Citizen Participation at the Local Level in China and Canada Andrew Sancton, Chen Zhenming, 2014-11-13 What if anything is similar about citizen participation at the local level in Canada and China The answer of course is politically sensitive There are many in Canada who would claim that the question is absurd How can there be meaningful citizen participation in a country where there are significant restrictions on political activity including on the right to form organizations with political purposes Presenting the work of leading scholars Citizen Participation at the Local Level in China and Canada examines how citizens in each country participate at the local level The book examines the development of citizen participation in local governance in Canada and China respectively It then covers the characteristics of political culture and climate on local participation highlighting factors especially unique to urban poor class migration and aboriginal and immigrant populations The chapters also explore means of protest demonstration and articulation of preference by populations and issues where citizen participation has effected change such as land use housing urban development and resource sustainability The book includes case studies that compare Canadian and Chinese communities and extrapolate interesting policy level changes at the local level based on citizen behavior and involvement It underscores the similarities and differences in political participation in both countries and sets the stage for the steps in the citizen participation in both countries
