Some Aspects of Public Library Management John Adams Lowe, 1926 The Medical Library Association Guide to Managing Health Care Libraries Ruth Holst, Sharon A. Phillips, 2000 Many hospitals and health care organizations that were independent freestanding institutions are now part of large health systems that deliver patient care in a variety of inpatient ambulatory and community settings Vast changes in the U S health care system are reshaping how librarians provide services to physicians and other patient caregivers as well as to medical and allied health sciences students and faculty. Twenty one experts have contributed to this groundbreaking text. Their individual chapters offer specific practical advice on administrative issues, planning and marketing, financial management, space planning, collection development, cataloging and classification, document delivery, audiovisual services, every aspect of managing today's ever changing health care library. Required reading for any librarian offering health care information to professionals, faculty or consumers. Management Techniques for Librarians G. Edward Evans, 1976. Library management. History of management. Styles of management and organizational thought. Creativity and the library. Decision making. Planning. Delegation. Communications. Motivation. Personnel. Finance. Work analysis. Management librarians and the future. The Best of OPL Andrew Berner, Guy St. Clair, 1990. Library Management in Review Special Libraries Association. Library Management Division, 1981. Library Work, 1912. Time Management Handbook for Librarians J Wesley Cochran, 1992. The techniques of time management explained in this handbook provide a framework from which professional librarians in academic, public and special libraries can benefit. Included are time management techniques for one's personal work habits, techniques for work routines involving other staff members and techniques for library administrators. Cochran, a law library administrator, focuses on effectiveness, doing the right job rather than efficiency, doing a job right. The major topics include setting goals and objectives for one's personal and professional life that support one's values, planning and scheduling work each day, fighting procrastination, limiting interruptions, planning effective meetings, delegating effectively, building morale and cultivating creativity. Other chapters cover time management techniques for special situations including travel and lunch time, balancing a career and personal life and implementing a time management training program in a library. Appendices include worksheet forms. The Library of Factory Management ..., 1916. Library Management Quarterly, 1994. Library Work Cumulated, 1905-1911 Anna Lorraine Guthrie, 1912. A Report of the ... Institute on Public Library Management, 1954. Library Work Cumulated, 1912.
