Library Skills Pretest:

Action Plan for Outcomes Assessment in Your Library Peter Hernon, Robert E. Dugan, 2002 This book examines the process of assessing if and how well students and library users are learning from the resources the library provides The book provides data collection tools for measuring both learning and research outcomes that link outcomes to user satisfaction and includes detailed examples from actual outcomes assessment programs Assessment and Accountability in Reference Work Susan Griswold Blandy, Lynne M. Martin, Mary L. Strife, 2019-12-05 This book first published in 1992 explores the issue of library assessment methods and the impact of accountability on the delivery of reference services It is a call for librarians to actively adopt performance measures and learn how to work with the results It analyses a wealth of assessment methods that librarians can use to collect data and create standards that are valid practical and useful in accounting for reference services Some of the methodologies described include quantitative measures qualitative measures patron surveys questionnaires interviews case studies peer review unobtrusive testing and even updating the library's policies and procedures manual as a way to evaluate services A variety of assessment methods for reference services are applied to all types of libraries Chapters in Assessment and Accountability in Reference Work describe how a small town library defends the relevancy of its services at a town meeting how a special library documents the value of its services to cost conscious management and how academic libraries can become involved in university and college level assessment programs Librarians seeking to develop their own assessment methods will benefit from practical advice on assessing diversity in the library and helpful suggestions for improving reference services through training workshops peer coaching and changes in organizational climate Complete Library Skills Activities Program Arden Druce, 1990 More than 65 lesson plans materials on book care library behavior the Dewey Decimal System book reports more Library Assessment in Higher Education Joseph R. Matthews, 2014-12-02 Written specifically to address the library's role in education this book provides guidance on performing assessment at academic institutions that will serve to improve teaching effectiveness and prove your library's impact on student learning outcomes and thereby demonstrate your library's value Academic libraries are increasingly being asked to demonstrate their value as one of many units on campus but determining the outcomes of an academic library within the context of its collegiate setting is challenging This book explains and clarifies the practice of assessment in academic institutions enabling library managers to better understand and explain the impact of the library on student learning outcomes teaching effectiveness and research productivity Providing essential information for all college and university librarians this volume discusses and summarizes the outcomes of research that has been conducted to investigate assessment within the context of higher education This updated second edition incorporates additional research examines new trends and covers groundbreaking advances in digital assessment tools as well as the changes in the amount and forms of data utilized in the assessment process The chapters address assessment from a campus setting and present data that demonstrate the value of the library within that setting in terms of learning research and overall impact In sum the book presents librarians with up to date practical guidelines for planning and conducting assessment Library User Education Barbara I. Dewey, 2002-05-09 Material presented here is replete with concrete new ideas not only for collaboration but also for funding training personal involvement Web based instruction and other concepts too numerous to mention And the best thing about these ideas is that they are not the usual endlessly discussed theories these are ideas that have worked and some which have failed in the real world Despite the myriad new works available today related to library instruction in general and information literacy in particular none is devoted solely to collaborative efforts between teaching faculty and librarians This is where Library User Education Powerful Learning Powerful Partnerships shines just as in the real world it s all about collaboration Angela Weiler Portal Adult Literacy Assessment Tool Kit Suzanne Knell, Janet Scogins, 2000-06 This guide contains strategies to help the reader create effective and accountable adult literacy programmes The assessment tools in this book will help identify and evaluate the skill levels of learners make changes to a program based on user s aptitudes and write thorough grant proposals Teaching Library Skills for Academic Credit Mignon S. Adams, Jacquelyn M. Morris, 1985 Skills for Life Paul Philip Rux, 1993 Offers school libraries new ways to teach traditional skills and master new information technology such as CD ROM online databases multimedia video and interactive laser disks An Analysis of the Cost and Effectiveness of Utilizing Computer-assisted Instruction to Teach Library Skills at the Intermediate Level Carl J. Andresky, 1983 A Comparative Study and Analysis of the Library Skills of American and Foreign Students at the University of Michigan Felicia Sulia Kimo Lafon, 1992 Managing Library Instruction Programs in Academic Libraries Julia K. Nims, Eric Owens, 2003 Issues covered in breakout sessions range from staff scheduling and workload to project management and from collaborating with faculty to devising staff development programs Library Trends , 1980 Progress in Educating the Library User John Lubans, 1978 Resources in education , 1984-04 Assessment and the School Library Media Center Carol Collier Kuhlthau, M. Elspeth Goodin, Mary Jane McNally, 1994 A report taken from School Library Media Annual 1993 It is coupled with recent articles on the subject New and alternative measures of assessment are discussed with guidelines on how to implement them to evaluate and illustrate the impact of the library media programme on student learning RQ , 1992 The Effect of a Computer-assisted Learning Library Skills Stimulus on Attitude Toward and Use of a College Library Richard John Wood, 1986 School Library Media Quarterly , 1988 Evaluating Library Instruction Diana D. Shonrock, 1996 This easy to use guide offers a wealth of materials to assist you in planning and creating evaluation instruments for your library instruction program It was prepared by a unit of the American Library Association the Library Instruction Round Table Research Committee whose members analyzed hundreds of evaluation forms gathered from all types of libraries selecting the most consistently useful items User instruction programs are costly and their effectiveness must be documented with hard data

But with busy staff evaluation has often been more preached than practiced One problem has been finding the expertise to create a valid measuring instrument that will provide effective results in a reasonable amount of time Under the editorship of its chair Diana Shonrock the Research Committee has addressed these problems with a recipe book that simplifies the planning and creation of evaluation instruments Here in one expertly assembled guide you will find step by step advice on survey planning and well over 500 sample questions for evaluation of class work instructors and instructional materials and equipment No other guide offers this level of plug and play assistance to get your evaluation program under way or is more up to date in its coverage of the electronic aspects of modern library instruction School Librarian's Grade-by-grade Activities Program Carol Collier Kuhlthau, 1981 A complete sequential skills plan for Grades K 8
