Life and Gabriella Ellen Anderson Gholson Glasgow, 2015-07-04 Excerpt from Life and Gabriella The Story of a Woman s Courage After a day of rain the sun came out suddenly at five o clock and threw a golden bar into the deep Victorian gloom of the front parlour On the window sill midway between the white curtains a pot of blue hyacinths stood in a cracked china plate and as the sunlight shone into the room the scent of the blossoms floated to the corner where Gabriella was patiently pulling basting threads out of the hem of a skirt For a minute her capable hands stopped at their work and raising her smooth dark head she looked compassionately at her sister Jane who was sitting like a frozen image of martyrdom in the middle of the long horsehair sofa Three times within the last twelve months Jane had fled from her husband s roof to the protection of her widowed mother a weak person of excellent ancestry who could hardly have protected a sparrow had one taken refuge beneath her skirt Twice before Mrs Carr had wept over her daughter's woes and returned her a sullen saint to the arms of the discreetly repentant Charley but to day while the four older children were bribed to good behaviour with bread and damson preserves in the pantry and the baby was contentedly playing with his rubber ring in his mother's arms Gabriella had passionately declared that Jane must never never go back About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
