the second group will have great difficulty in continuing learning and in performing well in non-technical professions because we have not fully tested them. Many students already consider it unfair to receive diplomas from the school that they have not earned. This is a very serious problem. It is not clear to me how we can solve this problem. I think that the school should be able to give diplomas to students who have not earned them. I think that the school should be able to give diplomas to students who have not earned them. I think that the school should be able to give diplomas to students who have not earned them.
