Beyond the Wire Ross Bryan,2015-01-20 Squinting from a one two punch of exhaustion and the eerie faded brass hue of a desert sun that doesn't take breaks and never seems to want to I'm trying to decide just how in the hell I ended up here Here being Iraq Cavalry Scout In the Army for that matter Perhaps if I thought long and hard enough I could remember I knew for damn sure that I had no shortage of time to work it out My journey started six thousand miles to the west in a place called Ashtabula Ohio I had spent the better part of a year at a 3rd shift job in a factory on the far end of town trying not to lose myself in the mullets and meth of the American Midwest Then came 9 11 The images of those airplanes slamming into the NYC skyline like lawn darts playing on a constant loop on CNN The attack had leant me a sense of purpose I enlisted in the Army Now here I was two years later as far from Ashtabula as I could get squinting in the dust and that godforsaken insane colored sun It all seemed to be drawing together into some kind of destiny and before I ever saw Ohio again before I got the chance to comprehend the paradise that Ashtabula really had been there was Iraq There was an eternity of gunfire and explosions and heat and blood and steel Iraq was hell and that was exactly where I was going
