Life Orientation Task Two Project 2014:

Research Handbook on Sustainable Project Management Gilbert Silvius, Martina Huemann, 2024-07-05 This Research Handbook provides a comprehensive overview of the role of project management in sustainable development Examining how to successfully integrate sustainability into the processes and practices involved it highlights the significant development in sustainable project management whilst exploring potential future directions for the field ICMLG2014 Proceedings of the 2nd International Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance Philip Arthur Dover, Sam Hariharan, Michael G. Cummings, 2014-01-02 Design Thinking for Software Engineering Jennifer Hehn, Daniel Mendez, Walter Brenner, Manfred Broy, 2022-02-13 This book explores the possibility of integrating design thinking into today's technical contexts Despite the popularity of design thinking in research and practice this area is still too often treated in isolation without a clear consistent connection to the world of software development The book presents design thinking approaches and experiences that can facilitate the development of software intensive products and services It argues that design thinking and related software engineering practices including requirements engineering and user centric design UX approaches are not mutually exclusive Rather they provide complementary methods and tools for designing software intensive systems with a human centric approach Bringing together prominent experts and practitioners to share their insights approaches and experiences the book sheds new light on the specific interpretations and meanings of design thinking in various fields such as engineering management and information technology As such it provides a framework for professionals to demonstrate the potential of design thinking for software development while offering academic researchers a roadmap for further research Characteristics of Tasks in the Domain of Accounting Simone Reindl-Stütz, 2025-10-10 This book explores the characteristics of tasks in the domain of accounting from Therefore the current state of didactic discourse in accounting education was reviewed and based on this a comprehensive category system was developed for analyzing and evaluating accounting tasks This category system can also be used to design new accounting tasks and to improve existing ones Furthermore 2 000 accounting tasks from 15 different textbooks published by three Austrian publishers were analyzed and evaluated using the category system This significantly expands the knowledge base regarding the characteristics of tasks in the accounting domain The results of the comprehensive evaluations show that there is potential for improvement in the tasks and that the standards formulated within the category system are currently not being fully met In addition it is concluded that both a change in task culture and curricular reforms and further developments are necessary in current accounting education Teaching and Learning Difficult Histories in International Contexts Terrie Epstein, Carla Peck, 2017-08-07 Grounded in a critical sociocultural approach this volume examines issues associated with teaching and learning difficult histories in international contexts Defined as representations of past violence and oppression difficult histories are contested and can evoke emotional often painful responses in the present Teaching and learning these histories is contentious yet necessary for increased dialogue within conflict ridden societies reconciliation in post conflict societies and greater social cohesion in long standing democratic nations Focusing on locations and populations across the globe chapter authors investigate how key themes including culture identity collective memory emotion and multi perspectivity historical consciousness distance and amnesia inform the teaching and learning of difficult histories The Routledge Handbook of Social Work Practice Research Lynette Joubert, Martin Webber, 2020-04-13 The Routledge Handbook of Social Work Practice Research is the first international handbook to focus on practice research for social work Bringing together leading scholars in the field from Europe the USA and the Asia Pacific region it provides an up to the minute overview of the latest thinking in practice research whilst also providing practical advice on how to undertake practice research in the field It is divided into five sections State of the art Methodologies Pedagogies Applications Expanding the frontiers The range of topics discussed will enhance student development as well as increase the capacity of practitioners to conduct research develop coordinating and leadership roles and liaise with multiple stakeholders who will strengthen the context base for practice research As such this handbook will be essential reading for all social work students practitioners and academics as well as those working in other health and social care settings Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events Handbook of Research on Student-Centered Strategies in Online Adult Learning Environments Fitzgerald, Carlton J., Laurian-Fitzgerald, Simona, Popa, Carmen, 2018-06-08 As traditional classroom settings are transitioning to online environments teachers now face the challenge of using this medium to promote effective learning strategies especially when teaching older age groups Because adult learners bring a different set of understandings and skills to education than younger students such as more job and life experiences the one size fits all approach to teaching does not work thus pushing educators to create a student centered approach for each learner The Handbook of Research on Student Centered Strategies in Online Adult Learning Environments is an important resource providing readers with multiple perspectives to approach issues often associated with adult learners in an online environment This publication highlights current research on topics including but not limited to online competency based education nontraditional adult learners virtual classrooms in public universities and teacher training for online education This book is a vital reference for online trainers adult educators university administrators researchers and other academic professionals looking for emerging information on utilizing online classrooms and environments in student centered adult education Graphic Novels in English Foreign Language Teaching Ibrahim Kaddoura, 2017-10-23 Master s Thesis from the year 2017 in the subject English Language and Literature Studies Literature grade 1 5 University of Siegen language English abstract In this thesis the author scrutinizes the advantages of using graphic novels in teaching English as a foreign language and tries to answer the following research question In how far does reading and working with graphic novels improve the linguistic and cultural competence of German students in English as a foreign language EFL This thesis consists of two parts a theoretical part that will acquaint the reader with the notion of visual literacy some basics on comic style theory the development of intercultural communicative competence and second language acquisition In the second part the author looks at two research projects dealing with the integration of graphic novels in ELT at a German grammar school The first project is conducted in an eighth grade and investigates students linguistic development through reading graphic novels and both students and the teacher s appreciation of graphic novels The second research project is conducted in an eleventh grade and investigates students development of intercultural communicative competence and both the students and teacher s enthusiasm towards using graphic novels in language teaching At the end the author will answer the research question in the form of a conclusion
