Queering Romantic Engagement in the Postal Age Pamela VanHaitsma, 2019-09-18 2020 Winifred Bryan Horner Book Award Honorable Mention from the Coalition of Feminist Scholars in the History of Rhetoric and Composition Romantic letters are central to understanding queer history Debates about letters of romantic friendship however too often reduce them to unstudied expressions of heartfelt feeling In Queering Romantic Engagement in the Postal Age Pamela VanHaitsma shows how the genre should be understood as a learned form of rhetoric VanHaitsma argues that epistolary instruction in the nineteenth century United States shaped civic engagement in predictably heteronormative ways even as it opened up possibilities for queer rhetorical practices Her archival study draws on writings whose authors diverse by gender race class and education all developed ways of queering cultural norms and generic conventions in their same sex relationships VanHaitsma theorizes a new concept of rhetorical education for romantic engagement to account for the significant yet understudied role of such training in inventing both civic and romantic life

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
