The Institutionalisation of Disaster Risk Reduction Gideon van Riet, 2016-12-01 The past three decades have seen a global shift in disaster management from an event driven response to a could be risk management approach Disaster risk reduction DRR has become entrenched as a dominant paradigm within the field of disaster management More than a decade after adopting DRR legislation in South Africa there remains a dearth of evidence that this has translated into substantive action This book examines the institutionalisation of DRR in South Africa conceived of as a political economy of knowledge production Using a critical theory approach the book does not consider why DRR is failing but instead asks why DRR As such it explores possibilities beyond DRR s narrow optic and offers new insights into disaster management through the lens of South Africa This is valuable reading for graduate students and academics working in disaster studies geography public policy and development post development studies as well as policy makers

Integrating Indigenous and Scientific Knowledge for Sustainable Food Systems in Africa Saa Dittoh, Anna Bon, Hans Akkermans, 2025-04-25 This open access book presents a novel approach to food security research SDG 2 Zero Hunger by integrating indigenous and scientific knowledge Through extensive field based research in Burkina Faso Ghana Kenya Mali and South Africa it explores the impact of merging traditional practices and local knowledge with scientific methods Through field studies the book shows the value of local knowledge and community led innovations in combating hunger achieving food security and enhancing nutrition sustainably and food sovereignty Drawing on decades of research in rural Africa the authors introduce the Plug In Principle a theory for integrating indigenous and modern knowledge systems to foster sustainable agricultural practices and enriched food ecosystems in Africa The Plug In Principle advocates that advancements in science and technology should enhance rather than replace existing indigenous knowledge This principle emerged from the failures of many development interventions where attempts at replacement often led to challenges and failures In agriculture for instance interventions in mechanization soil amendments seed and breed improvements and extension services have seldom succeeded due to a lack of integration with existing practices The Plug In Principle emphasizes that effective knowledge integration hinges on a deep understanding and appreciation of prevailing systems By designing interventions that seamlessly plug in to existing technologies we can ensure the co creation of effective solutions to the challenges we face This book is a testament to the potential of collaborative innovation in fostering sustainable development Development workers policymakers researchers students and donor agencies in agriculture and other development areas will find this volume invaluable Additionally scholars focused on decolonization and indigenous knowledge in the Global South will uncover insightful case studies and analyses

The African Food Environments Amos

Laar,Kaleab Baye,Anna Lartey,Francis Zotor,Gershim Asiki,2023-09-05 In many respects the continent of Africa is in transition Prominent among them currently is the nutrition transition One consequence of the nutrition transition is the increase in prevalence of nutrition related non communicable diseases NCDs such as obesity type 2 diabetes cardiovascular diseases and certain cancers Although NCDs are a global public health problem the rate of increase in NCDs morbidity and mortality in some African countries is staggering This surge has been linked to modifiable environmental factors factors that facilitate the consumption of obesogenic energy dense nutrient poor foods rather than unrefined cereals fruits and vegetables It has long been recognized that the physical and social environments in which people live work and eat are critical determinants of their health More recently there has been a greater focus on the food environment as a key determinant of health Available evidence shows that unhealthy food environments drive unhealthy diets and unhealthy diet is one of four main risk factors for NCDs Meat, milk and more: Policy innovations to shepherd inclusive and sustainable livestock systems in Africa Malabo Montpellier Panel,2020-07-29 Meat Milk More Policy Innovations to Shepherd Inclusive and Sustainable Livestock Systems in Africa highlights options for sustainably promoting growth in the livestock sector drawing from what four African countries Ethiopia Mali South Africa and Uganda have done successfully in terms of institutional and policy innovation as well as programmatic interventions By adapting these lessons to countries specific contexts and scaling them up across the continent African governments can meet their national and international commitments to agricultural growth and transformation The Politics of Potential Michelle Pentecost,2024-01-12 The first one thousand days of human life or the period between conception and age two is one of the most pivotal periods of human development Optimizing nutrition during this time not only prevents childhood malnutrition but also determines future health and potential The Politics of Potential examines early life interventions in the first one thousand days of life in South Africa drawing on fieldwork from international conferences government offices health care facilities and the everyday lives of fifteen women and their families in Cape Town Michelle Pentecost explores various aspects of a politics of potential a term that underlines the first one thousand days concept and its effects on clinical care and the lives of childbearing women in South Africa Why was the First One Thousand Days project so readily adopted by South Africa and many other countries Pentecost not only explores this question but also discusses the science of intergenerational transmissions of health disease and human capital and how this constitutes new forms of intergenerational responsibility The women who are the target of first one thousand days interventions are cast as both vulnerable and responsible for the health of future generations such that despite its history intergenerational responsibility in South Africa remains entrenched in powerfully gendered and racialized ways Science Education: A Global Perspective Ben Akpan,2016-08-03 Science Education A Global Perspective is global both in content and authorship Its 17 chapters by an assemblage of seasoned and knowledgeable science educators from many parts of the world seek to bring to the fore current developments in science education and their implications The book thus covers a wide range of topics in science education from various national and international perspectives These include the nature of science science and religion evolution curriculum and pedagogy context based teaching and learning science and national development socially responsible science education equitable access for women and girls in science and technology education and the benefits of science education research It ends on an optimistic note by looking at science education in 50 years time with a recommendation among others for stakeholders to take the responsibility of preparing children towards a blossoming science education sector in an anticipated future world This book is suitable for use by discerning researchers teachers undergraduate and postgraduate students in science education and policy makers at all levels of education Other educationalists and personnel in science and technology vocations will also find it interesting and useful as the reader motivated approach has guided the presentation of ideas Science Education A Global Perspective is a rich compendium of the components of science education in context practice and delivery Dr Bulent Cavas Professor of Science Education Dokuz Eylul University Buca Izmir Turkey President Elect International Council of Associations for Science Education ICASE This book will be of immense relevance for current and future global strides in training and research in science education Surinder K Ghai Chairman Sterling Publishers Pvt Ltd New Delhi India This book provides a refreshing insight into the current status and future direction of science education It will be very useful to researchers those pursuing undergraduate and post graduate courses in science education and all other personnel involved in the policy and practice of science education Dr Bennoit Sossou Director Country Representative UNESCO Regional Office in Abuja Nigeria

Tribing and Untribing the Archive Carolyn Hamilton, Nessa Leibhammer, 2016 These volumes track how the domain of the tribal and traditional was marked out and came to be sharply distinguished from modernity how it was denied a changing history and an archive and was endowed instead with a timeless culture These volumes also offer strategies for engaging with the materials differently from the interventions effected in contemporary artworks to the inserting of nameless timeless objects of material culture into histories of individualized and politicized experience Publisher's description Wild Equids Jason I. Ransom, Petra Kaczensky, 2016-06 Readers will find new insight into the lives of the world's horses zebras and asses understand the basis of our relationships with these animals and develop a greater understanding of where equids come from and why they are worth conserving Included in this book are detailed state of the science syntheses on Social structure behavior and cognition Habitat and diet Ecological niches Population dynamics Roles of humans in horse distribution through time Human dimensions and the meaning of wild Management of free roaming horses Captive breeding of wild equids Conservation of wild equids Conservation of migrations Reintroductions Genetics and paleogenetics Social Science Abstracts ,1933 Scientific and Technical Books and Serials in Print ,1984 The Indian Journal of Agricultural Sciences ,2018 Index Veterinarius ,2002 The Electrical Journal ,1908 Proceedings of the Entomological Society of Washington Entomological Society of Washington, 2016 List of members in v 1 3 5 14 Library & Information
