Hirvela, Diane Belcher, 2021-12-13 Argumentative Writing in a Second Language is a collection on teaching argumentative writing offering multiple vantage points drawn from the contributors own teaching and research experiences The value of learning how to compose argumentative texts cannot be overstated and yet very little attention has been allocated to the equally important topic of how argumentation is or can be taught in the L2 context Thus this volume shifts attention to teachers and argumentative writing instruction especially within increasingly common multimodal and digital literacy settings While doing so it provides a comprehensive wide ranging view of the L2 argumentative writing landscape within an instructional lens Part I of the volume is topic oriented and focuses on explorations of important issues and perspectives while Part II features several chapters reporting classroom based studies of a variety of instructional approaches that expand our understanding of how argumentative writing can be taught The book will be of value to pre service and in service teachers in varying instructional contexts as well as teacher educators and L2 writing scholars researchers Self-Regulation and the Common Core Marie C. White, Maria K. DiBenedetto, 2015-03-27 The Common Core State Standards for English Language Arts created new challenges for teachers and pre service instructors Self regulated learning using one s thoughts feelings and behaviors to reach goals can help students become independent self directed learners This book provides educators the support they need to apply the principles of self regulated learning in their teaching for success with the Common Core In this book Marie C White and Maria K DiBenedetto present information on how to apply academic self regulation by integrating two models one which addresses how students develop self regulatory competence the other which focuses on the various processes within the three phases of self regulated learning In addition Self Regulation and the Common Core provides specific lesson plans for grades K 12 using the standards and the integrated framework to promote higher order thinking and problem solving activities Handbook of Research on Writing Instruction Practices for Equitable and Effective Teaching Hodges, Tracey S.,2022-05-27

Writing is a critical component for teaching children about advocacy and empowering student voice as well as an essential tool for learning in many disciplines Yet writing instruction in schools often focuses on traditional methods such as the composition of five paragraph essays or the adherence to proper grammatical conventions While these are two components of writing instruction and preparation in education they only provide a small glimpse into the depth and breadth of writing As such writing instruction is increasingly complex and requires multiple perspectives and levels of skill among teachers The Handbook of Research on Writing Instruction Practices for Equitable and Effective Teaching serves as a comprehensive reference of issues related to writing instruction and leading research about perspectives methods and approaches for equitable and effective writing instruction It includes practices beyond K 12 including best writing practices at the college level as well as the development of future teachers Providing unique coverage on culturally relevant writing socio and racio linguistic justice and urgent writing pedagogies this major reference work is an indispensable resource for administrators and educators of both K 12 and higher education pre service teachers teacher educators libraries government officials researchers and academicians Crossing Boundaries in Researching, Understanding, and Improving Language Education

Dongbo Zhang,Ryan T. Miller,2023-02-08 This volume brings together original papers from language education scholars from around the world to explore exemplify and discuss the multiplicity of boundary crossing in language education It emphasizes the potential of boundary crossing for expansive learning and aims to generate new insights through boundary crossing into the complexity of language education and approaches to innovative practices This volume also underscores the important role of expert boundary crossers In particular it aims to honor G Richard Tucker Paul Mellon University Professor Emeritus of Applied Linguistics at Carnegie Mellon University celebrating his distinguished scholarship on language education and paying tribute to the inspiration and mentorship he has given to the contributors of this volume to cross boundaries academically and professionally This volume is organized into four sections namely language learning and development teachers and instructional processes program innovation implementation and evaluation and language in education policy and planning These sections or themes which are necessarily cross cutting also represent the major areas of scholarship where Prof Tucker has made distinguished contributions for over half a century Writing Thief Ruth Culham,2016-09-06

Culham demonstrates a major part of good writing instruction is finding the right mentor texts to share with students Within this book you ll discover more than 90 excellent mentor texts along with straight forward activities that incorporate the traits of writing across informational narrative and argument modes The Narrative Writing Toolkit Sean Ruday,2016-03-31 In order for students to write effective narratives they need to read good narratives In this practical book you ll find out how to use mentor texts to make narrative writing instruction more meaningful authentic and successful Author Sean Ruday demonstrates how you can teach elementary and middle school students to analyze the qualities of effective narratives and then help them think of those qualities as tools to improve their own writing You ll learn how to Introduce your students to the key features of a successful narrative such as engaging the reader organizing an event sequence and crafting a strong conclusion Assess students writing by evaluating the specific attributes of an effective narrative Make narrative writing an interactive student driven exercise in which students pursue their own writing projects Use mentor texts to help students learn the core concepts of narrative writing and apply those skills across the curriculum Encourage students to incorporate technology and multimedia as they craft their narratives The book is filled with examples and templates you can bring back to the classroom immediately as well as an annotated bibliography with mentor text suggestions and links to the Common Core You ll also find a study guide that will help you use this book for professional development with colleagues Bonus Blank templates of the handouts are available as printable eResources on our website <http://www.routledge.com> 9781138924390
