Mpumalanga Term 3 Life Science 2014 Test:

Operation Lock and the War on Rhino Poaching John Hanks, 2015-05-08 The aggressive poaching of rhinos needs to be countered with equal aggression So argued Prince Bernhard of the Netherlands the founder president of the World Wide Fund for Nature WWF at a 1987 meeting with John Hanks conservation expert and WWF s head in Africa The result was Operation Lock a secret initiative funded by Prince Bernhard and staffed by former SAS operatives Operation Lock set up headquarters in Johannesburg and extended its reach into neighbouring states Namibia Zambia Botswana Swaziland and Mozambique Its operatives planned to train game rangers to pose as rhino horn traders in order to entrap buyers and to expose the kingpins who were driving the trade It was a controversial approach all the more because it was working within apartheid South Africa in the late 1980s When the existence of the project was finally leaked WWF denied any involvement and John Hanks took the fall In Operation Lock and the War on Rhino Poaching John Hanks finally tells the story of these explosive events from 25 years ago As a leading international authority on conservation he also deals with the scourge of rhino poaching up to the present and gives powerful and controversial criticism of some of the current policies to curb poaching

Handbook of Comparative Education Law: Selected Nations from Africa and the Americas Charles J. Russo, 2019-08-09 Each of the four volumes in this set as well as each volume independently provide comparative analyses for researches practitioners and students of the law and education in examining law and education in various countries around the world Designed to allow readers to learn from rather than copy the legal and educational systems in these volumes the books are designed to generate thought and conversation on how education can be improved around the world By having chapter authors leading academicians in the home countries follow the same template so it can be easier to compare similarities and differences thereby helping to make the book user friendly The value of these books is that they should help to enhance international awareness of the similarities and advantages associated with bringing together knowledge from various countries concerning education law Volume 4 encompassing Selected Nations in Africa and the Americas namely Brazil Canada Mauritius United States South Africa and Venezuela consists of detailed analysis of educational law and systems in these representative countries so researchers and students there and elsewhere can learn from one another

Safari Nation Jacob S. T. Dlamini, 2020-04-22 Safari Nation opens new lines of inquiry in the study of national parks in Africa and the rest of the world The Kruger National Park is South Africa s most iconic nature reserve renowned for its rich flora and fauna According to author Jacob Dlamini there is another side to the park a social history neglected by scholars and popular writers alike in which blacks meaning Africans Coloureds and Indians occupy center stage Safari Nation details the ways in which black people devoted energies to conservation and to the park over the course of the twentieth century engagement that transcends the stock black figure of the laborer and the poacher By exploring the complex and dynamic ways in which blacks of varying class racial religious and social backgrounds related to the Kruger National Park and with the help of previously unseen archival photographs Dlamini's narrative also sheds new light on how and why Africa's national parks often derided by scholars as colonial impositions survived the end of white rule on the continent Relying on oral histories photographs and archival research Safari Nation engages both with African historiography and with ongoing debates about the land question democracy and citizenship in South Africa
