Memorandum For Physical Sciences Paper For November 2014:

Bulk Collection of Signals Intelligence National Research Council, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, Computer Science and Telecommunications Board, Committee on Responding to Section 5(d) of Presidential Policy Directive 28: The Feasibility of Software to Provide Alternatives to Bulk Signals Intelligence Collection, 2015-03-24 The Bulk Collection of Signals Intelligence Technical Options study is a result of an activity called for in Presidential Policy Directive 28 PPD 28 issued by President Obama in January 2014 to evaluate U S signals intelligence practices The directive instructed the Office of the Director of National Intelligence ODNI to produce a report within one year assessing the feasibility of creating software that would allow the intelligence community more easily to conduct targeted information acquisition rather than bulk collection ODNI asked the National Research Council NRC the operating arm of the National Academy of Sciences and National Academy of Engineering to conduct a study which began in June 2014 to assist in preparing a response to the President Over the ensuing months a committee of experts appointed by the Research Council produced the report The History of the Study of Landforms or the Development of Geomorphology, Volume 5 T.P. Burt, A.S. Goudie, H.A. Viles, 2022-10-20 Co published with British Society for Geomorphology This volume is the fifth in the definitive series The History of the Study of Landforms or the Development of Geomorphology Volume 1 1964 dealt with contributions to the field up to 1890 Volume 2 1973 with the concepts and contributions of William Morris Davis and Volume 3 1991 covered historical and regional themes during the classic period of geomorphology 1890 1950 Volume 4 2008 concentrated on studies of geomorphological processes and Quaternary geomorphology between 1890 and 1965 by the end of this period process based studies had become dominant Volume 5 builds on this platform covering in detail the revolutionary changes in approach that characterized the study of geomorphology in the second half of the twentieth century It is divided into three sections the first deals with changes in approach and method the second with changes in ideas and the broader scientific context within which geomorphology is studied and the final section details advances in research on processes and landforms The volume s objective is to describe and analyse many of the developments that provide a foundation for the rich and varied subject matter of twenty first century geomorphology

Arctic Shipping Frédéric Lasserre, Olivier Faury, 2019-09-05 This book considers both the present state of Arctic shipping and possible future trends with reference to the various sectors of maritime transportation cruise tourism container traffic and bulk shipping Ports are analysed as tools that support the strategies of coastal states to foster the development of resource extraction enhance the attractiveness of Arctic shipping lanes and enable the control of maritime activities through coast guard deployment The aim of this book is to draw a picture of the trends of Arctic shipping How is traffic evolving in Canada s Arctic or along the Northern Sea Route Are there significant differences between bulk and container shipping segments when considering the Arctic market How are the ports and the hinterland developing and what are the strategies behind those How is the legal framework shaping the evolution of maritime transportation The contributors to this book consider all of these questions and more as they map out the prospects for Arctic shipping and analyse in detail the development of Arctic shipping as a result of multi variable interactions This book will be key reading for industry professionals and post graduate students alike Geologic Fundamentals of Geothermal Energy David R. Boden, 2016-09-19 Geothermal energy stands out because it can be used as a baseload resource This book unlike others examines the geology related to geothermal applications Geology dictates a how geothermal resources can be found b the nature of the geothermal resource such as liquid or vapor dominated and c how the resource might be developed ultimately such as flash or binary geothermal plants The compilation and distillation of geological elements of geothermal systems into a single reference fills a notable gap Technological Innovation in Legacy Sectors William B. Bonvillian, Charles Weiss, 2015-08-18 The American economy misses opportunities for innovation growth and job creation because of a neglected problem the resistance to innovation from Legacy sectors like energy manufacturing and health care which constitute most of our economy The book offers systematic strategies to overcome the structural obstacles to innovation in critically important Legacy sectors REIC Memorandum Battelle Memorial Institute. Radiation Effects Information Center, 1961 Carbon Capture and Storage Ian Havercroft, Richard Macrory Hon KC, Richard Stewart, 2018-02-08 Carbon Capture and Storage CCS is increasingly viewed as one of the most significant ways of dealing with greenhouse gas emissions Critical to realising its potential will be the design of effective legal regimes at national and international level that can handle the challenges raised but without stifling a new technology of potential great public benefit These include long term liability for storage regulation of transport the treatment of stored carbon under emissions trading regimes issues of property ownership and increasingly the sensitivities of handling the public engagement and perception Following its publication in 2011 Carbon Capture and Storage quickly became required reading for all those interested in or engaged by the need to implement regulatory approaches to CCS The intervening years have seen significant developments globally Earlier legislative models are now in force providing important lessons for future legal design Despite these developments the growth of the technology has been slower in some jurisdictions than others This timely new edition will update and critically assess these updates and provide context for the development of CCS in 2018 and beyond

Reflections on Programming Systems Liesbeth De Mol, Giuseppe Primiero, 2019-01-10 This book presents a historical and philosophical analysis of programming systems intended as large computational systems like for instance operating systems programmed to control processes The introduction to the volume emphasizes the contemporary need of providing a foundational analysis of such systems rooted in a broader historical and philosophical discussion The different chapters are grouped around three major themes The first concerns the early history of large systems developed against the background of issues related to the growing semantic gap between hardware and code The second revisits the fundamental issue of complexity of large systems dealt with by the use of formal methods and the development of grand designs like Unix Finally a third part considers several issues related to programming systems in the real world including chapters on aesthetical ethical and political issues This book will interest researchers from a diversity of backgrounds It will appeal to historians philosophers as well as logicians and computer scientists who want to engage with topics relevant to the history and philosophy of programming and more specifically the role of programming systems in the foundations of computing Road Vehicle Automation 4 Gereon Meyer, Sven Beiker, 2017-06-28 This book is the fourth volume of the sub series of the Lecture Notes in Mobility dedicated to Road Vehicle Automation Its chapters have been written by researchers engineers and analysts from all around the globe Topics covered include public sector activities human factors and challenges ethical legal energy and technology perspectives vehicle systems development as well as transportation infrastructure and planning The book is based on the Automated Vehicles Symposium which took place in San Francisco California USA in July 2016
