

The Narcotics Anonymous Step Working Guide

This is NA Fellowship-approved literature

Preface

The idea for this piece of literature came from the Narcotics Anonymous Fellowship itself. Beginning in the early 1980s, we began receiving Twelve Step guides and step worksheets along with requests that we develop a standard set of guides for the NA Fellowship to use in working through the Twelve Steps. Fellowship demand propelled this project up the NA World Service Conference Literature Committee's priority wordlists, and finally resulted in the World Service Conference directing the WSCLC to go ahead with the project at WSC'95.

The working title for this project for many years was the "Step Writing Guides." However, we recognized that the word "writing" imposed a limitation on members who may be unable to write or may choose not to use writing as the means for working the Twelve Steps. Therefore, the title became the Step Working Guides.

Each chapter includes both narrative and questions. The narrative is meant to provoke thought about the questions, but is not meant to be comprehensive. There is a difference in "voice" between the narrative and the questions. The narrative is written in the "we" voice in order to promote unity about what we all have in common: our addiction and recovery. The questions are written in the individual "I" voice so that each member using these guides can personalize the work. The Step Working Guides is a companion piece to It Works: How and Why. Thorough discussion of each of the Twelve Steps is contained in that work. Additional information about NA recovery can be found in other NA literature. Na Step Working Guide Step 1:

Narcotics Anonymous Fellowship of Narcotics Anonymous, Basic recovery text for addicts that explains NA's principles and includes members' personal experiences finding NA and living clean Psychodynamic Approaches for Treatment of Drug Abuse and Addiction David Potik, 2020-11-29 This book provides clinicians and students with insights on the use of psychodynamic therapy to treat drug abuse and addiction combining theory with clinical case material. The perspectives of analysts such as Abraham Rado, Zimmel, Tibout, Wurmser, Khanzian, Krystal, and McDougall are reviewed alongside original and more recent conceptualizations of drug addiction and recovery based on Kleinian, Winnicottian, and Kohutian ideas. The case material deals with clinical phenomena that characterize working with this complex population such as intense projective identification, countertransference difficulties, and relapses. The theoretical analysis covers a range of concepts such as John Steiner's psychic shelters and Betty Joseph's near-death addiction, which are yet to be fully explored in the context of addiction. Prevalent topics in the addiction field such as the reward system, the cycle of change, and the 12-step program are also discussed in relation to psychodynamic theory and practice. Written by an experienced therapist, Psychodynamic Approaches for Treatment of Drug Abuse and Addiction is useful reading for anyone looking to understand how psychodynamic thought is applicable in the treatment of drug abuse and addiction. It may also be of some relevance to those working on treating alcohol use disorders and behavioral addictions.

Spirituality, Religion, and Peace Education Edward J. Brantmeier, Jing Lin, John P. Miller, 2010-07-01 Spirituality, Religion, and Peace Education attempts to deeply explore the universal and particular dimensions of education for inner and communal peace. This co-edited book contains fifteen chapters on world spiritual traditions, religions, and their connections and relevance to peacebuilding and peacemaking. This book examines the teachings and practices of Confucius, Judaism, Islam, Sufism, Christianity, Quakerism, Hinduism, Tibetan Buddhism, and of Indigenous spirituality. Secondly, it explores teaching and learning processes rooted in self-discovery, skill development, and contemplative practices for peace. Topics in various chapters include the Buddhist practice of tonglen, an indigenous Hawaiian practice of Ho'oponopono for forgiveness and conflict resolution, pilgrimage and labyrinth walking for right action, Twelve Step Programs for peace, teaching from a religious/spiritual perspective, narrative inquiry, Daoism, and peace curriculum, Gandhi, deep ecology, and multicultural peace education in teacher education, peacemaking and spirituality in undergraduate courses, and wisdom-based learning in teacher education. Peace education practices stemming from wisdom traditions can promote stillness as well as enliven, awaken, and urge reconciliation, connection, wisdom cultivation, and transformation and change in both teachers and students in diverse educational contexts. In various chapters of this book, a critique of competition, consumerism, and materialism undergirds the analysis. More than just a critique, some chapters provide both conceptual and practical clarity for deeper engagement in peaceful action and change in society. Cultural awareness and understanding are fostered through a focus on the positive aspects of wisdom traditions rather than the negative aspects and
