Units of Study in Opinion, Information, and Narrative Writing Lucy Calkins, Amanda Hartman, Natalie Louis, Julia Mooney, Lauren Kolbeck, Monique Knight, Shanna Schwartz, Alexandra Marron, Elizabeth Dunford, Stephanie Parson, 2013 This series of books is designed to help primary teachers teach a rigorous yearlong writing curriculum Units of Study in Opinion, Information, and Narrative Writing Lucy Calkins, Amanda Hartman, Natalie Louis, Julia Mooney, Lauren Kolbeck, Monique Knight, Shanna Schwartz, Alexandra Marron, Elizabeth Dunford, Stephanie Parson, 2013 This series of books is designed to help primary teachers teach a rigorous yearlong writing curriculum Using Art to Teach Writing Traits Jennifer Klein, Elizabeth Stuart Whitehead, 2018-11-23 Our purpose for writing this book is so that children can become better communicators by expressing their thoughts feelings and ideas The ability to communicate is a universal goal in society If children can better communicate in their speaking and writing clearer more precise messages will be received and communication around the world will be strengthened The writing traits are a way for teachers and children to discuss and analyze written pieces for strengths and needs in order communicate their thoughts and expresses their ideas through writing in a way that touches their audience Adding art into this established process will allow children to learn about the writing traits in a text free environment before applying the traits to their own writing Children will learn how artists communicate their thoughts feelings and ideas and how the traits that writers use are similar to the traits that artists use in order to better communicate express themselves and process the world around them In addition we will discuss the revision and editing process Art is an exciting and engaging subject for students This book will allow children to transfer their knowledge of how artists use the traits to how writers use the traits and then to how they can utilize the traits in their own writing to better communicate with their audience and process the world around them Units of Study in Opinion, Information, and Narrative Writing Lucy Calkins, Amanda Hartman, Elizabeth Dunford, Natalie Louis, Julia Mooney, Laurie Pessah, Elizabeth Moore, Lauren Kolbeck, Elizabeth Franco, Monique Knight, Shanna Schwartz, Alexandra Marron, Stephanie Parson, 2013 This series of books is designed to help primary teachers teach a rigorous yearlong writing curriculum

Handbook of Formative Assessment in the Disciplines Heidi L. Andrade, Randy E. Bennett, Gregory J. Cizek, 2019-05-14 The Handbook of Formative Assessment in the Disciplines meaningfully addresses current developments in the field offering a unique and timely focus on domain dependency Building from an updated definition of formative assessment the book covers the integration of measurement principles into practice the operationalization of formative assessment within specific domains beyond generic strategies evolving research directions including student involvement and self regulation and new approaches to the challenges of incorporating formative assessment training into pre service and in service educator training As supporters of large scale testing programs increasingly consider the potential of formative assessments to improve teaching and learning this handbook advances the subject through novel frameworks intersections of theory research and practice and attention to discernible disciplines Written for instructors graduate students researchers and policymakers each chapter provides expert perspectives on the procedures and evaluations that enable teachers to adapt teaching and learning in process toward student achievement

Literacy Theory as Practice Lara J. Handsfield, 2015-10-01 This comprehensive textbook introduces readers to the most influential theories and models of reading and literacy ranging from behaviorism and early information processing theories to social constructionist and critical theories Focusing on how these theories connect with different curricular approaches to literacy instruction pre K to grade 12 the author shows how they both shape and are shaped by everyday literacy practices in classrooms Readers are invited to explore detailed vignettes that offer a practice based view of theories as they are brought to life in the classroom Unlike other books on literacy theories this one devotes substantial attention to linguistically and culturally diverse classrooms and 21st century technologies

Book Features

- Descriptions of well known curricular models and assessment approaches
- Detailed examples from specific areas of reading and literacy instruction that are prominent in today s schools
- Textbox discussions exploring histories terminology and debates relevant to the theories presented
- Examination of how theories and practices relate to current policy initiatives such as the Common Core State Standards
- User friendly text features such as charts reference lists and inset boxes to help clarify complex concepts

In these times when teachers are maligned in both the popular press and professional literature a volume such as this offers the potential to provide intellectual freedom in the complex work of teaching

From the Foreword by Annemarie Sullivan Palincsar University of Michigan Finally a text that brings together and honors multiple perspectives and makes clear the power of a good theory for making sense of our worldviews Handsfield provides elegant demonstrations of the relations of literacy theories to actions decisions and practices A must read for literacy educators and researchers
