photos Directory of Cultural Resource Education Programs at Colleges, Universities, Craft and Trade Schools in the United States, 1994 This directory provides information about training programs or education programs that last from six months to several years and promote cultural heritage of U S education There are three sections in this directory Section 1 Discipline Definitions and Education Programs or Directories defines the groups of related terms identifies the schools or colleges that offer them and refers the reader to additional directories or resources Section 2 State by State Program Descriptions describes the schools or colleges in more detail and includes a mailing address and the types of programs offered Section 3 Additional Education Directories provides greater detail on the additional directories and resources This directory is intended for high school and undergraduate level students and their counselors and advisors seeking advanced training related to the preservation and management of cultural resources and cultural heritage EH Remixing the Landscape Architecture History Class Daniel C. Jost, 2015 The pedagogical goals for landscape architecture history courses required as part of the curriculum in professional degree programs in landscape architecture vary from school to school One goal of some of these courses has been to provide a broad survey of the field of landscape architecture But analysis shows some of the major design challenges and project types designers face today have minimal representation in the imagery in Elizabeth Barlow Rogers s Landscape Design A Cultural and Architectural History which many landscape architecture history classes in the U S use as a primary text This project explored how a one quarter survey of historical landscapes that is offered as part of a landscape architect s professional education might be taught in a way that more closely correlates with some of the work designers are involved with today as described by the American Society of Landscape Architects and the U S Bureau of Labor Statistics I remixed Rogers s textbook together with other sources to provide a topically stylistically culturally and chronologically broad introduction to the landscape architecture field that provides professional students a variety of examples of how they might learn from historical works of landscape architecture Prior to creating this class interviews were conducted to understand how current surveys of landscape architecture history that are required within the professional landscape architecture curriculum were being taught in an attempt to build on this understanding The class resulting from these explorations was taught in the spring of 2015 at the University of Washington Reflections are provided on the experience Placemaking and Cultural Landscapes Rana P. B. Singh, Olimpia Niglio, Pravin S. Rana, 2023-02-07 Placemaking and cultural landscapes are worldwide multidisciplinary global concerns that cover many points of view of the common impacts of socio economic cultural and rights jurisprudence planning wellbeing and related advancements Concerned with the complex interactions between the development and environment of those factors it is important to seek ways paths and implications for framing sustainability in all social activities This book is mostly based on the 10th ACLA Asian Cultural Landscape Association International Webinar Symposium that took place during September 26 27 2020 in the Banaras Hindu University Varanasi India It examines contemporary social cultural issues in the context of the United Nations

Sustainable Development Goals UN SDGs and associated cultural and sacred landscapes There the emphasis is on awakening deeper cultural sensitivity in harmonizing the world and the role of society and spiritual systems drawing upon multi disciplinary and cross cultural interfaces all within the scope of the future of the earth The book s chapters add a new dimension of cultural understanding in the broad domain of emerging human geoscience considered as key policy science for contributing towards sustainability and survivability science together with future earth initiatives

The Culture of Nature in the History of Design Kjetil Fallan,2019-03-26 The Culture of Nature in the History of Design confronts the dilemma caused by design s pertinent yet precarious position in environmental discourse through interdisciplinary conversations about the design of nature and the nature of design Demonstrating that the deep entanglements of design and nature have a deeper and broader history than contemporary discourse on sustainable design and ecological design might imply this book presents case studies ranging from the eighteenth to the twenty first century and from Singapore to Mexico It gathers scholarship on a broad range of fields practices from urban planning landscape architecture and architecture to engineering design industrial design furniture design and graphic design From adobe architecture to the atomic bomb from the bonsai tree to Biosphere 2 from pesticides to photovoltaics from rust to recycling the culture of nature permeates the history of design As an activity and a profession always operating in the borderlands between human and non human environments design has always been part of the environmental problem whilst also being an indispensable part of the solution The book ventures into domains as diverse as design theory research pedagogy politics activism organizations exhibitions and fiction and trade literature to explore how design is constantly making and unmaking the environment and conversely how the environment is both making and unmaking design This book will be of great interest to a range of scholarly fields from design education and design history to environmental policy and environmental history
