Tackle Football

On a warm Friday in early October my friends and I play tackle football after school.

"Someone's really going to get hurt one of these seasons," says Tom. "I bet one of us is going to break a bone."

"No one's going to get hurt," said Tom. "How can you tackle football without getting more than a scratch or two?"

"About a million times," I said, sort of agreeing. I had been playing football for as long as I could remember. I was tackled. I heard a loud snap and then I was only from the back. About those kids who were saying, "Oh, man! Oh, man!" over and over.

I thought I had just a cut or a scrape. Then I looked down and saw a red mark just below his elbow. "You could have hurt his elbow!"

"You could have hurt his elbow!" I said, sort of agreeing. I had been playing football for as long as I could

I was only from the back. About those kids who were saying, "Oh, man! Oh, man!" over and over.

I thought I had just a cut or a scrape. Then
