Race, Class, and the Struggle for Neighborhood in Washington, DC Nelson F. Kofie,2015-11-17 First published in 1999 This case study examines how low income residents community leaders the Nation of Islam and the police joined forces to close down an open air drug market The research shows how a previously stable black community became severely destabilized and documents the efforts of community members to mobilize their neighbors around home ownership tenant empowerment and jobs Adopting a holistic perspective the author examines tensions between opportunities and constraints dictating the aspirations of individuals the historical factors influencing the course of events in their community and the agenda of various government and private agencies This three year ethnographic study observed the community's rejuvenation and the drastic reduction in drug related crimes antagonism between the police and the Nation of Islam and the demise of the HUD funded tenants home ownership initiative Ph D dissertation George Washington University 1996 revised with new preface introduction bibliography and index Face Value Robin Lakoff, Raquel Scherr, 2022-11-30 First published in 1984 Face Value confronts the pervasive power of beauty through art and literature as well as interviews with men and women with varying perspectives on the subject The topics covered range widely the history of beauty from the Greeks to the present the pathology of beauty how women have been willing to harm themselves mentally and physically to achieve beauty the language we use to speak of beauty and its implications our attitudes towards beauty as examined by psychologists beauty and ethnic identity men and beauty The authors present in fact a redefinition of beauty enabling both women and men to enjoy it in themselves and in others while discarding the sex role stereotypes that have governed the definition of beauty in the past With a new preface that explores the gaps created by time in the book's discourse this book will be of interest to students of linguistics gender studies women's studies cultural studies sociology and anthropology 2020 the Campaign Chronicles JD Foster, 2021-02-17 The 2020 campaign began with the 2016 election of Donald J Trump and effectively rendered a verdict on his presidency The Democartc Party sifted through a small army of worthies to defeat Trump and in former Vice President Joe Biden they found their champion Biden claimed the nomination following a phoenix like rise propelled by a miraculous South Carolina primary victory Backed by the party establishment and the mainstream media Biden's weak campaign proved sufficient by a handful of votes in a handful of states and leaving Biden with little mandate other than to avoid being like Trump The story of the 2020 election is in part a story of America and the Trump presidency a stormy marriage of highs and lows shaped by contrived investigations into Russian government interference a failed impeachment a welcomed intolerance for sexual harassment the exposure of deep racial divisions highlighted by widespread and often violent rioting accompanied by a re examination of the role of the police a strong economy until crushed by the coronavirus pandemic and then the pandemic tragedy itself The Trump presidency's four years astounded for better or for worse depending on point of view This book chronicles the 2020 election and thus the events that shaped the election over the course of four years written contemporaneously to capture the flavor of the moment praising and criticizing Trump and his many antagonists in equal measure Those enamored of the former president will find succor and outrage as will those who delighted in his defeat Those seeking to understand what happened will find the reading interesting infuriating and perhaps in places illuminating
