A Model of Human Occupation Gary Kielhofner, 1995. Presenting the new edition of the text that delivers the most widely used and developed conceptual model in occupational therapy. Beautifully redesigned and fully revised, the Third Edition of A Model of Human Occupation (MOHO) delivers the latest in human occupation research and application to practice. New to this edition: a reader-friendly format with second color and additional illustrations and anecdotes; more case examples for integrating the model into practice; a discussion of the therapy process and how change occurs; language linked to ICD-10 and ICF terminology; a research chapter and numerous research references highlighting the growing body of evidence supporting MOHO.

Psychosocial Occupational Therapy Mary Ann Bruce, Barbara Borg, 1993. Play in Occupational Therapy for Children L. Diane Parham, Linda S. Fazio, 2008. Focused on the importance of play in evaluating and treating children with disabilities, Play in Occupational Therapy for Children, 2nd Edition, presents play theories and assessments along with the theories and assessments reached from research conducted by occupational therapists and occupational scientists. This edition also includes five new chapters that reflect the latest developments in the areas of autism, play assessment, play for institutionalized toddlers, school-based play, and play and assistive technology in an early intervention program to provide you with the most up-to-date information available. Case Studies highlighted in special boxes provide snapshots of real-life situations and solutions to help you apply key concepts in the clinical setting. Clinical trials and outcome studies emphasize evidence-based practice. Key Terms, Chapter Objectives, and Review Questions help you assess and evaluate what you've learned. A clean two-color format highlights learning points to emphasize important concepts. Additional Evolve Resources include video clips for clinical assessment, web links, references, and assessment forms found in the book provide you with additional learning tools.

Bird-banding, 1943 Measuring Occupational Performance Mary C. Law, Carolyn Manville Baum, Winnie Dunn, 2001. Gives background on measurement concepts and issues and explores the central theoretical concept of occupational therapy: occupation and occupational performance outcomes. Outlines key actions that occupational therapists must implement when conducting assessments, reporting findings, and interpreting measurement information for intervention planning. Measurement issues and practices are discussed, and a framework is provided to guide the choice of assessment tools. Measurement in the context of a client-centered approach is a central theme. Law is affiliated with McMaster University. Annotation copyrighted by Book News, Inc., Portland, OR.
