The Life of Lambert Lombard (1565); and Effigies of Several Famous Painters from the Low Countries (1572)

Dominicus Lampsonius, 2021-12-21 Among the earliest written texts on the history and theory of Netherlandish art these two key writings are now available together in an English translation Dominicus Lampsonius's The Life of Lambert Lombard 1565 is the earliest published biography of a Netherlandish artist This neo Latin account of the life of the painter architect and draftsman Lambert Lombard of Liège offers a theoretical exposition on the nature and ideal practice of Netherlandish art emphasizing Lombard's intellectual curiosity interest in antiquity attentive study of the human body and exemplary generosity as a teacher This volume offers the first English edition of The Life of Lambert Lombard complemented by a new translation of the inscriptions Lampsonius composed to accompany the Effigies of Several Famous Painters from the Low Countries 1572 a cycle of twenty three engraved portraits of Netherlandish artists developed in collaboration with the print publisher Hieronymus Cock Together The Life of Lambert Lombard and the Effigies established frameworks for a distinctly Netherlandish history of art Responding to a growing sense of Netherlandish cultural and political identity on the eve of the Dutch Revolt these texts proposed a critical alternative to Giorgio Vasari's Lives of the Artists and its Italian model of art historical development celebrating local ingenuity and skill They remain the starting point for any history of the northern Renaissance

Anonymous Art at Auction Anne-Sophie V. Radermecker, 2021-05-25 Working with a data set accounting for 13 000 auction sales results Anne Sophie V Radermecker explores what contemporary buyers value when purchasing paintings of unknown or uncertain authorship and which variables influence price formation mechanisms in this market segment The principle finding of this book is not only that historical names matter in the art market but so do all other alternative identification strategies that art market players use to label anonymous paintings Indirect names provisional names and spatiotemporal designations function as substitutes for real names that simulate identities create ex post stories around the artworks offered for sale and consequently reduce information asymmetry about an artist's identity with at time quite unexpected effects on price

Jan de Beer Dan Ewing, 2016 The Antwerp painter Jan de Beer c 1475 1527 28 was highly esteemed in his lifetime and still famous forty years after his death but then fell into oblivion until the early twentieth century This monograph is the first published comprehensive study of his art and career Its biography is the result of a thorough search of the archives and includes a recently discovered teaching contract with Lieven van Male of Ghent All documents are fully transcribed including documents for the artist s painter son Aert de Beer c 1508 1538 40 Results from technical studies of the artist s work including underdrawings and dendrochronological dating are incorporated throughout the book The artist's surviving oeuvre consists of forty works mainly devotional paintings and triptychs but also a dozen drawings and a stained glass window in Antwerp Cathedral after a lost design De Beer's stylish elegant art exerted a powerful appeal upon the buying public churches abroad and copyists His lost Adoration of the Magi was the best selling painting design in Antwerp at the time De Beer is further important as one of only two Antwerp artists of his generation for whom a significant body of drawings exist The catalogue of paintings and drawings by the artist and his workshop including the numerous copies and variants comes to over 170 works De Beer's art is typically associated with the work of the Antwerp Mannerists a prominent group of painters active in the city during his lifetime This study argues that De Beer's work plus that of the Mannerists and the city's retable carvers should be understood as a novel modern expression of late Gothic art a sixteenth century renewal of the Gothic mode that was also manifested in contemporary architecture calligraphy music and poetry The Oxford English Dictionary James Augustus Henry Murray, Henry Bradley, 1975

Jan Van Hemessen Burr Wallen, 1983 Antwerp in the Renaissance Bruno Blondé, Jeroen Puttevils, 2020 This book engages with Antwerp in the Renaissance Bringing together several specialists of sixteenth century Antwerp it offers new research results and fresh perspectives on the economic cultural and social history of the metropolis in the sixteenth century Recurrent themes are the creative ways in which the Italian renaissance was translated in the Antwerp context Imperfect imitation often resulted from the specific social context in which the renaissance was translated Antwerp was a metropolis marked by a strong commercial ideology a high level affluence and social inequality but also by the presence of large and strong middling layers which contributed to the city's bourgeois character The growth of the Antwerp market was remarkable in no time the city gained metropolitan status This book does a good job in showing how quite a few of the Antwerp achievements did result from the absence of existing structures and examples Moreover the city and its culture were given shape by the many frictions and uncertainties that came along with rapid urban growth and religious turmoil
