Jason And Anna Lee:

Jason and Anna Lee Sue Gavin, 2015-02-10 Jason and Anna Lee is the story of a 12 year old boy's flight into the night from the abuses of his drunken stepfather into the arms of a seriously impaired woman who lives on the streets. In spite of her impairment she takes him over and cares for him until he is reunited with his mother. These are the title characters Jason and Anna Lee. The narrative of the five day interval is interrupted by flashbacks into several of the leading characters' lives through various means. Sometimes the narrator does it, sometimes it comes out in conversation, but the search for Jason is a catalyst for these characters who must re-examine themselves and their lives: his mother who finally takes stock of herself and her life, the drunken cop who is always searching for recognition with no understanding of the disease that is eating his life up, and Jason himself who at age 12 is sure that his life is bad and can only get worse. As the story moves along to a shattering climax, it provokes the great Jobian query: why do terrible things befall defenseless people? Is there a loving and involved God, and if so, why isn't He doesn't intervene more for the defenseless? These questions are explored by a Jesuit priest and his friend, a St. Louis police detective who has seen the worst of the worst and believes nothing. The Broken Places
