

The background image is a dark, industrial interior, possibly a warehouse or a large room. A single spotlight from the ceiling illuminates a circular area on the floor. In the foreground, there are some papers and a dark object on the floor. In the background, there are some wooden crates or boxes on the left and a large window or door on the right. The overall atmosphere is mysterious and somber.

How the West Became Antisemitic Ivan G. Marcus, 2025-08-05 An examination of how the Jews real and imagined so challenged the Christian majority in medieval Europe that it became a society that was religiously and culturally antisemitic in new ways In medieval Europe Jews were not passive victims of the Christian community as is often assumed but rather were startlingly assertive forming a Jewish civilization within Latin Christian society Both Jews and Christians considered themselves to be God s chosen people These dueling claims fueled the rise of both cultures as they became rivals for supremacy In How the West Became Antisemitic Ivan Marcus shows how Christian and Jewish competition in medieval Europe laid the foundation for modern antisemitism Marcus explains that Jews accepted Christians as misguided practitioners of their ancestral customs but regarded Christianity as idolatry Christians on the other hand looked at Jews themselves not Judaism as despised They directed their hatred at a real and imagined Jew theoretically subordinate but sometimes assertive an implacable enemy within In their view Jews were permanently and physically Jewish impossible to convert to Christianity Thus Christians came to hate Jews first for religious reasons and eventually for racial ones Even when Jews no longer lived among them medieval Christians could not forget their former neighbors Modern antisemitism based on the imagined Jew as powerful and world dominating is a transformation of this medieval hatred A sweeping and well documented history of the rivalry between Jewish and Christian civilizations during the making of Europe How the West Became Antisemitic is an ambitious new interpretation of the medieval world and its impact on modernity Narratives Online Ruth Page, 2018-01-25 Stories are shared by millions of people online every day They post and re post interactions as they re tell and respond to large scale mediated events These stories are important as they can bring people together or polarise them in opposing groups Narratives Online explores this new genre the shared story and uses carefully chosen case studies to illustrate the complex processes of sharing as they are shaped by four international social media contexts Wikipedia Facebook Twitter and YouTube Building on discourse analytic research Ruth Page develops a new framework Mediated Narrative Analysis to address the large scale multimodal nature of online narratives helping researchers interpret the micro and macro level politics that are played out in computer mediated communication „And on this Rock I Will Build My Church“. A New Edition of Philip Schaff's „History of the Christian Church“ Muhammad Wolfgang G. A. Schmidt, 2017-07 This voluminous work on Church History by Philip Schaff 1819 1893 was originally published between 1858 and 1893 in eight volumes in the USA and covers the period from the beginnings of Biblical Christianity in A D 1 to the History of the Reformation in Germany and Switzerland 1517 1648 Being still a popular text in North America this work had been out of print for over a century and has now been carefully edited and reformatted for republication in three volumes each of them containing the text of two volumes of the original edition Schaff s work unlike other works in the field covers a multitude of church history related aspects from church doctrine policy events and processes to aspects of social moral and family life arts and more It is a very comprehensive text extremely well written and readable rich in material and sources used and attests to the excellence of protestant German theological scholarship under the influence of emerging Historical Critical Biblical Exegesis at his time This second volume covers the period from the Nicene and Post Nicene Fathers to Medieval Christianity A D 311 1073 Book Review Digest ,1910 British Museum Catalogue of printed Books ,1881
