A Memory Called Empire meets Miss Marple in this cozy, spaceborne mystery, helmed by a no-nonsense formidable auntie of a detective.

Welcome to the HMS Fairweather, Her Majesty's most luxurious interstellar passenger liner! Room and board are included, new bodies are graciously provided upon request, and should you desire a rest between lifetimes, your mind shall be most carefully preserved in glass in the Library, shielded from every danger.

Near the topmost deck of an interstellar generation ship, Dorothy Gentleman wakes up in a body that isn't hers—just as someone else is found murdered. As one of the ship's detectives, Dorothy usually delights in unraveling the schemes on board the Fairweather, but when she finds that someone is not only killing bodies but purposefully deleting minds from the Library, she realizes something even more sinister is afoot.

Dorothy suspects her misfortune is partly the fault of her feckless nephew Ruthie who, despite his brilliance as a programmer, leaves chaos in his cheerful wake. Or perhaps the sultry yarn store proprietor—and ex-girlfriend of the body Dorothy is currently inhabiting—knows more than she's letting on. Whatever it is, Dorothy intends to solve this case. Because someone has done the impossible and found a way to make murder on the Fairweather a very permanent state indeed. A mastermind may be at work—and if so, they've had three hundred years to perfect their schemes...

Illustrated British Ballads, Old and New George Barnett Smith, 1881 Illustrated British ballads, old and new, selected and ed. by G.B. Smith George Barnett Smith, 1894 From Memory to Marble Elizabeth Rankin, Rolf Michael Schneider, 2020-02-10 For the first time the 92 metre frieze of the Voortrekker Monument in Pretoria one of the largest historical narratives in marble has been made the subject of a book The pictorial narrative of the Boer pioneers who conquered South Africa's interior during the Great Trek 1835-52 represents a crucial period of South Africa's past Conceptualising the frieze both reflected on and contributed to the country's socio-political debates in the 1930s and 1940s when it was made The book considers the active role the Monument played in the rise of Afrikaner nationalism and the development of apartheid as well as its place in post-apartheid heritage The frieze is unique in that it provides rare evidence of the complex processes followed in creating a major monument Based on unpublished documents drawings and models these processes are unfolded step by step from the earliest discussions of the purpose and content of the frieze through all the stages of its design to its shipping to post-war Italy to be copied into marble from Monte Altissimo up to its final installation in the Monument The book examines how visual representation transforms historical memory in what it chooses to recount and the forms in which it is depicted The second volume expands on the first by investigating each of the twenty-seven scenes of the frieze in depth providing new insights into not only the frieze but also South Africa's history Françoise van Schalkwyk of African Minds co-publisher with De Gruyter writes From Memory to Marble is an open access monograph in the true sense of the word Both volumes of the digital version of the book are available in full and free of charge from the date of publication This approach to publishing democratises access to the latest scholarly publications across the globe At the same time a book such as From Memory to Marble with its unique and exquisite photographs of the frieze as well as its wealth of reproduced archival materials demands reception of a more traditional kind that is on the printed page For this reason the book is likewise available in print as two separate volumes The printed and digital books should not be seen as separate incarnations each brings its own advantages working together to extend the reach and utility of From Memory to Marble to a range of interested readers The Works of the British Dramatists ... Notes, Biographies, and a Historical Introduction Sir John Scott Keltie, 1870 The Office, 1889 The Trajectory of Holocaust Memory Stephen D. Smith, 2022-12-30 The Trajectory of Holocaust Memory The Crisis of Testimony in Theory and Practice re-considers survivor testimony moving from a subject-object reading of the past to a subject-subject encounter in the present It explores how testimony evolves in relationship to the life of eyewitnesses across time This book breaks new ground based on three principles The first draws on Martin Buber's I-Thou concept transforming the object of history into an encounter between subjects The second employs the Jungian concept of identity whereby the individual internal identity and the persona external identity reframe testimony as an extension of the individual They are a living subject rather than merely a persona or narrative The third principle draws on Daniel Kahneman s concept of the experiencing self which relives events as they occurred and the remembering self which reflects on their meaning in sum Taken together these principles comprise a new literacy of testimony that enables the surviving victim and the listener to enter a relationship of trust Designed for readers of Holocaust history and literature this book defines the modalities of memory witness and testimony It shows how encountering the individual who lived through the past changes how testimony is understood and therefore what it can come to mean
