largest forms of urban employment across southern Africa Home economics provides the first comprehensive history of this essential sector in the decades following independence and the end of apartheid Focusing on Lusaka and drawing wider comparisons the book traces how Black workers and employers adapted existing models of domestic service as part of broader responses to changing gendered employment patterns economic decline and endemic poverty It reveals how kin based domestic service gradually displaced wage labour and how women and girl workers came to dominate kin based and waged domestic service with profound consequences for labour regulation and worker organising Theoretically innovative and empirically rich the book provides essential insights into debates about gender work and urban economies that are critical to understanding southern Africa s post colonial and post apartheid history Genders, Sexualities, and

Complexities in Africa Gabi Mkhize,Stanley Osezua Ehiane,Lupenga Mphande,2025-02-20 This book s significance is in its African centred border crossing overt and covert forces working against genders and sexualities reinforcing endemic gender and sexual based complexities Pragmatically sexualities and genders in Africa remain contested and an area of power and control contestations in both the private and public spheres Gender based violence and femicide GBVF in particular continue to escalate particularly during the COVID 19 pandemic Such GBVF at most affects young women migrants LGBTIQIA people sex workers informal street traders and widows amongst others This is happening at a time when the feminist and women s movements in Africa are experiencing fragmentations and factions that pull and push organising to the margins of prejudice internally thereby exacerbating an act of subordinated inclusion In this context the term subordinated inclusion connotes another form of complexity where the subaltern has been brought inside a room as an act of inclusion yet systemically subordinated through structure and obedience thereby compromising agency This complexity occurs in private and public domains where a continuum of contestations between structure and agency is sustained Consequently power struggles emerge and proliferate unabated into gendered and sexualised complexities including relations of state coloniality apartheid prejudice marginalization capitalism and democracy This book thus strives to surface these contestations and complexities and how they continue to thrive in an era that seeks another way possible a way out a jump off a manner of dealing and an exit from the status quo African Political Systems Revisited Aleksandar Bošković,Günther Schlee,2022-04-08

Reexamining a classical work of social anthropology African Political Systems 1940 edited by Fortes and Evans Pritchard this book looks at the colonial and academic context from which the work arose as well as its reception and its subject matter and looks at how the work can help with analysis of current politics in Africa This book critically reflects upon the history of anthropology It also contributes to a political anthropology which is aware of its antecedents self reflexive as a discipline conscious of pitfalls and biases and able to locate itself in its academic social and political environment

Global Visions of Violence Jason Bruner, David C. Kirkpatrick, 2022-12-09 In Global Visions of Violence the editors and contributors argue that violence creates a lens bridge and method for interdisciplinary collaboration that examines Christianity worldwide in the twentieth and twenty first centuries By analyzing the myriad ways violence persecution and suffering impact Christians and the imagination of Christian identity globally this interdisciplinary volume integrates the perspectives of ethicists historians anthropologists and ethnographers to generate new conversations Taken together the chapters in this book challenge scholarship on Christian growth that has not accounted for violence while analyzing persecution narratives that can wield data toward partisan ends This allows Global Visions of Violence to push urgent conversations forward giving voice to projects that illuminate wide and often hidden landscapes that have been shaped by global visions of violence and seeking solutions that end violence and turn toward the pursuit of justice peace and human rights among suffering Christians

The Farmer's Weekly, 1927

Wicked Valuations Michael McDermott, 2018-07-16 Traditional valuation approaches are increasingly recognised as being insufficient to address the wicked valuation problems of the diverse peoples and groups that inhabit the globe from north south east to west This book demonstrates the limitations of science and in particular economics as the foundation on which valuations are traditionally based It demonstrates the importance of and provides justification for the personal cultural values and norms which underpin our assessment of value and the fact that these vary across the world In Wicked Valuations Michael McDermott develops a means of engaging with highly complex valuation problems His autoethnography provides a lens to draw on knowledge and experience from his 40 years in land valuation in Africa and the Asia Pacific while documentary analysis is used to draw in the views of other valuation practitioners and scholars who are becoming increasingly aware of the need to develop ways to adapt land valuation processes to the complexity of our contemporary landscapes Farmer's Weekly ,1927 Yearbook
