Jessica J Manson

Kzn Basic Education Grade 11 Paper 1 2013 Economics:

Quality education Muchativugwa L. Hove, Martha Matashu, 2021-11-30 This book investigates the intersections between education social justice gendered violence and human rights in South African schools and universities The rich and multifarious tapestry of scholarship and literature emanating from South African classrooms provides a fascinating lens through which we can understand the complex consequences of the economies of education social justice imperatives gendered violence in the lives of women and children and marginalised communities The scholarship in the book challenges readers to imagine alternative futures predicated on the transformational capacity of a democratic South Africa Contributors to this volume examine the many ways in which social justice and gendered violence mirror express project and articulate the larger phenomenon of human rights violations in Africa and how in turn the discourse of human rights informs the ways in which we articulate interrogate conceptualise enact and interpret quality education The book also wrestles with the linguistic contradictions and ambiguities in the articulation of quality education in public and private spaces This book is essential reading for scholars seeking a solid grounding in exploring quality education the instances of epistemic disobedience the political implications of place and power and human rights in theory and practice

Struggling to Make the Grade: A Review of the Causes and Consequences of the Weak Outcomes of South Africa's Education System Mr. Montfort

Mlachila, Tlhalefang Moeletsi, 2019-03-01 While South Africa has made significant improvements in basic and tertiary education enrollment the country still suffers from significant challenges in the quality of educational achievement by almost any international metric The paper finds that money is clearly not the main issue since the South Africa's education budget is comparable to OECD countries as a percent of GDP and exceeds that of most peer sub Saharan African countries in per capita terms The main explanatory factors are complex and multifaceted and are associated with insufficient subject knowledge of some teachers history race language geographic location and socio economic status Low educational achievement contributes to low productivity growth and high levels of poverty unemployment and inequality Drawing on the literature the paper sketches some policy considerations to guide the debate on what works and what does not
