Climate Change Strategies: Handling the Challenges of Adapting to a Changing Climate Walter Leal Filho, Marina Kovaleva, Fátima Alves, Ismaila Rimi Abubakar, 2023-06-01 This book includes information experiences practical initiatives and projects around the subject matter and makes it available to a wide audience It addresses the scientific social political and cultural aspects of climate change impacts and respective solutions in an integrated and coherent way Climate change as a global phenomenon imposes new challenges for survival Extreme weather events including heat waves storms droughts as well as rising sea levels warming oceans and melting glaciers threaten people's livelihoods and communities ecosystems and habitats Furthermore it affects the entire food chain and increases competition for natural resources fuelling socioeconomic tensions The results of the latest IPCC report highlight the urgent need for combating climate change The adaptation measures to be undertaken range across sectors thematic fields and geographical locations Based on this need the book focuses on the high quality interdisciplinary contributions on the scientific social economic political and cultural aspects of climate change challenges and solutions Working with indigenous knowledge Fhumulani M. Mulaudzi, Rachel T. Lebesse, 2022 The aim of the book is to assist both local and international scholars in articulating the scholarly discourse on indigenous health attitudes practices and experiences The indigenous lens that was used to generate and disseminate indigenous knowledge in this book will strengthen indigenous scholarship thus making it accessible to a wider audience In addition the information shared in this book will add value for scholars and assist them with the indigenous knowledge needed to address sustainable development goals This book is timeous and topical as the discourse on the decolonisation of the curriculum is widely debated in the higher education space The discourse on the scholarship of indigenous knowledge as the tacit local knowledge that stems from cultural practices within communities has not been well articulated in the current health science education milieu Indigenous knowledge has remained overlooked and undermined for a very long time and the information remains untapped in local communities The scholars who conducted the research on which this book is based unearthed a wealth of knowledge which was tacit in nature and translated it into implicit knowledge that can be documented and shared with other scholars globally This knowledge will assist health care scholars in benefiting from knowledge practices and cultural beliefs that will assist them in health care planning teaching evidence based practice and further research Global Degradation of Soil and Water Resources Rui Li, Ted L. Napier, Samir A. El-Swaify, Mohamed Sabir, Eduardo Rienzi, 2022-01-29 This book focuses on soil and water conservation at global scale It is a serious environmental problem that will threaten the socio economic well being of the majority of global population in future The book examines the current situation of land degradation in multiple regions of the world and offers alternative approaches to solve the problems through sharing advanced technologies and lessons learned It provides comprehensive assessment on characteristics level and effect of degradation in different regions It s a highly informative reference both for researchers and graduate students Community-based adaptation Hannah Reid, 2017-10-02 Community based adaptation CBA to climate change is based on local priorities needs knowledge and capacities Early CBA initiatives were generally implemented by non government organisations NGOs and operated primarily at the local level Many used bottom up participatory processes to identify the climate change problem and appropriate responses Small localised stand alone initiatives are insufficient to address the scale of challenges climate change will bring however The causes of vulnerability such as market or service access or good governance also often operate beyond the project level Larger organisations and national governments have therefore started to implement broader CBA programmes which provide opportunities to scale up responses and integrate CBA into higher levels of policy and planning This book shows that it is possible for CBA to remain centred on local priorities but not necessarily limited to work implemented at the local level Some chapters address the issue of mainstreaming CBA into government policy and planning processes or into city or sectoral level plans e g on agriculture Others look at how gender and children's issues should be mainstreamed into adaptation planning itself and others describe how tools can be applied and finance delivered for effective mainstreaming This book was published as a special issue of Climate and Development
