Land Registration in Nampula and Zambezia Provinces, Mozambique Arlindo Gonçalo Chilundo, 2005

Zuma Jeremy Gordin, 2010-11-22 The first edition of Zuma published in late 2008

concluded with Jacob Zuma's future balancing on a knife's edge. National elections loomed but so did corruption charges and endless court battles. Since then Zuma's star has spectacularly risen: the corruption charges were dropped, he led the ANC to election victory and duly became President of South Africa and his new cabinet and government appointments were generally well received. But he has also recently suffered a huge blow with revelations of another love child, this time with the daughter of soccer supremo Irvin Khoza. Many of his supporters have distanced themselves from him and Zuma is looking isolated. Pundits are once again wondering how long he'll survive as President. In this revised and updated edition Jeremy Gordin takes the reader right up to present. He covers in detail the highs and lows of Zuma's past 18 months including the final salvoes of his legal battles as well as his first year as President. New material in this edition also includes the Pedro document, a document Zuma wrote in 1986 and accurate information on his wives and children.

The Routledge Handbook of Social Work Field Education in the Global South Rajendra Baikady, Sajid S.M., Varoshini Nadesan, M. Rezaul

Islam, 2022-07-08 This handbook provides an authoritative account of social work field education in the global south. It presents an overview of various aspects of theory and practice, modules in the social work curriculum and advances in research in social work field education in the developing world through in-depth analyses and global case studies. Key features: Discusses critical issues and new directions in the theory and practice of social work field education; challenges in field work education; decolonising field work training; developing competent social work graduates; aligning fieldwork with cultural practices in indigenous communities; the idea of clinical social work and a comparative analysis of social work field supervision; Integrates theory and practice of social work field education for students and teachers from diverse geographical and cultural contexts across the global south including countries from South Asia and Asia, Africa and Latin America and the Caribbean covering India, Bangladesh, Pakistan, Nepal, Sri Lanka, China, Georgia, Philippines, Turkey, Papua New Guinea, Eswatini, Republic of Trinidad and Tobago, Kenya, Nigeria, South Africa, Botswana, Chile and Barbados. Brings together international comparative perspectives on field work education in social work from leading experts, social work educators and social work professionals. This handbook will be an essential resource for scholars and researchers of social work, development studies, social anthropology, sociology, education, South Asian studies and Global South studies. It will also be useful to educators and practitioners of social work in global institutions of higher studies as well as civil society organisations.

The last great work of the age of reason, the final instance when all human knowledge could be presented with a single point of view. Unabashed optimism and unabashed racism pervades many entries in the 11th and provide its defining characteristics. Despite its occasional ugliness, the reputation of the 11th persists today because of the staggering depth of knowledge contained within its volumes. It is especially strong in its biographical entries. These delve deeply into the history of men and women prominent in their eras who have since been largely forgotten except by the historians scholars The Guardian <https://www.theguardian.com/books/booksblog>
