Climate Justice T. Thorp, 2014-08-28 In this ground breaking work Teresa Thorp tackles the causes and effects of climate injustice by methodically mapping out an approach by which to reach a negotiated consensus with legal force to protect present and future generations Using the law and policy of climate change as a vehicle for illustrating how to shape our future she comprehensively overturns the widely held contemporary view of climate justice as inconstant charitable acts relative systemic notions and static concepts isolated from the common good and a congruent rule of law Responding to the adverse impacts of climate change heat waves extended drought severe flooding and desertification which represent an urgent and potentially irreversible threat to human societies and the planet requires a new and cohesive way of thinking about global policy and the law The mission of guaranteeing and realising human dignity human security and human rights is multi fold Looking through the lens of kaleidoscopic normativity a nextensible language anchored in common juridical elements should facilitate how norms enter the socio legal frame and interact within it Users need to be able to display and interpret the congruent legal norm in order to obey and apply it Galvanising this process by constitutionalising first principles and consequential norms is vital for attaining fraternity between nations and among all people

Climate Justice A Voice for the Future is an essential read for scholars practitioners and all those genuinely interested in reaching consensus on a post 2015 global climate accord a unified development agenda and a cohesive pact for disaster risk reduction

Social Work, Social Welfare, and Social Development in Nigeria Mel Gray, Solomon Amadasun, 2023-05-23 This groundbreaking book provides a comprehensive account of social work social welfare and social development in Nigeria from a postcolonial perspective It examines the historical development of social work and social welfare and the colonial legacies affecting contemporary social welfare provision development planning social work practice and social work education Against this historical backdrop it seeks to understand the position of social work within Nigeria's minimalist structure of welfare provision and the reasons why social work struggles for legitimacy and recognition today It covers contexts of social work practice including child welfare juvenile justice disabilities mental health and ageing as well as areas of development related problems and humanitarian assistance as new areas of practice for social workers including internally displaced and trafficked people and their impact on women and children It seeks to understand Nigeria's ethnoreligious diversity and indigenous cultural heritage to inform culturally appropriate social work practice This book offers a global audience insight into Nigeria s developmental issues and problems and a local audience social science and human service researchers educators practitioners students and policymakers a glimpse of what s possible when people work together toward a common goal It will be of interest to all scholars and students of social work development studies and social policy

Ancient African Futures Stuart Taylor,2025-09-30 Ancient African Futures provides a creative and critical account of the history and form s of systemic constellations practice SCP applying a decolonial lens emphasizing the profound significance of Zulu epistemology on its origins The volume opens with an autoethnographic account of the author s African diasporan European identity and its bearing within the SCP profession It offers a summary introduction to SCP as a discrete modality of Western psychotherapy commonly accepted as the creation of Anton Hellinger a German national Hellinger was a Jesuit missionary priest in South Africa during the 1950 1960s The author argues that this colonial phenomenon and Hellinger himself are emblematic of the European Imperial project The volume scrutinises this historic contemporary dynamic in relation to more than Western indigenous epistemologies advocating for a pluriversal reckoning considering European colonial histories and indigenous forms of cultural resistance Having interrogated the asymmetric dynamic exchange between Africana and Western cultures the volume then explores a speculative manifesto This manifesto proposes numerous concrete actions regarding future curriculum design and faculty representation within professional SCP trainings championing a recalibration decentring whiteness making SCP a profession more open to and representative of diverse global communities Honouring their historic cultural colonial postcolonial and political experiences alongside their contemporary narratives of migration settlement and resistance to Western neocolonialism Ultimately advocating for an empathetic and celebratory Black Global Majority Heritage inclusive SCP practice model
