employs a pragmatic mix of old and new methods to examine the role of values and theoretical beliefs in economic life and in economists understanding of it It attends to the problems which have come with high productivity rapidly changing technology and skills changing proportions of earning and non earning years in most people s lives and a faltering revolution in childhood and parenting which has brought stress and over work for many women It addresses such issues as rising poverty inequality insecurity and the slow progress of environmental reform In focusing on such abuses of affluence the text draws on institutional Keynesian green and feminist theories while emphasising all approaches to understanding economic
