Long Manual Pole Saw:

Pruning in Timbered Stands Keith Windell, 1996 Fire Smart Home Handbook Clyde Soles, 2014-04-01 As climate change continues to wreak havoc on the environment devastating wildfires both natural and manmade are increasing The figure for average acres burned has increased from almost 2 million acres in 1992 to nearly 7 million in 2012 which set a new record with an average of 165 acres burned per fire Things are heating up but global warming isn't the only problem Budgets for fire suppression have been slashed severely The number of air tankers has decreased from 44 in 2002 to just 9 in 2012 which means fast attacks on fledgling fires will grow more difficult in the future If you live in a wildland urban interface the zone between unoccupied and developed land sooner or later fire will happen Fortunately you can prepare for the worst and it doesn't have to cost a fortune This highly detailed and practical reference guide will help you live more safely in the red zone and save you time and money along the way providing multiple methods of risk mitigation along with the financial level of each action Effectively prepping your land can even enhance the scenery and increase the value of your home Learn how wildfires begin and behave how to evaluate your property what essential tools you'll need and what they will cost how to prepare your land and home including tips on how to avoid insurance nightmares when to stay and fight when it's time to evacuate how to clean up after a fire event and more Even if you live in the middle of a suburb the information on how fires start and spread and how to deal with insurance claims will prove enlightening and helpful No one can guarantee that your house or land will survive if a major conflagration erupts but you can greatly improve your odds with this book and a little preparation Common Sense Forestry Hans W. Morsbach, 2002 Common Sense Forestry relates thirty years experience of an environmentally conscious woodland owner Much of the book is devoted to starting a forest and how to maintain it It answers such questions as What seedlings to buy Should your forest be monoculture or a mixed forest What is the payback for planting and maintaining a forest Is seeding a good way to start a forest What kind of seeds work best Does it pay to hire a consultant What should he/she do for you Does it pay to do much maintenance in your forest How should I prune Is timberland improvement worthwhile How when and whether to thin How to herbicide and when Can the damage done to nature by chemicals be justified by the benefits to your seedlings What are the economics of woodland ownership The success and history of German forestry methods is discussed and suggests what can be learned from these age old practices It will tell you how to file your income taxes what equipment to buy what works and does not work and why It also provides guidance on how to deal with state and federal programs Although intended for private woodland owners the book is used as a classroom text in universities The book is more practical than technical yet still imparts knowledge of basic forestry explaining terms such as succession and shade tolerance and how to apply these concepts in practice Even sophisticated concepts are covered in plain non technical terms Hans Morsbach the author believes that forestry is an art more than a science Competent foresters may apply different methods of managing their forests and achieve comparable results Still it is important to be guided by natural forest principles Doing nothing may sometimes be a better course of action than doing too much The book suggests ways to gauge your involvement with your woodland to time available and your personal preference It is most important that you enjoy your forest Catalog of Sears, Roebuck and Company Sears, Roebuck and Company,1975 Manual Training Magazine Charles Alpheus Bennett,William Thomas Bawden,1925 The Pruning Manual Edwin Francis Steffek,1982 Line Clearing Manual for Overhead Electric Conductors Edison Electric Institute.
