Tourism and Economic Development Robin N. Ghosh, R. N. Ghosh, Muhammed Abu B. Siddique, Rony Gabbay, 2003. Tourism has increasingly become a vital element in the economic development of the Indian Ocean region. This volume brings together leading tourism and economics experts from the region to discuss the wide range of problems and issues raised by the increasing significance of tourism. These issues and proposed policies are examined theoretically in the first section of this book with comparative empirical case studies illustrating these arguments in the second section.

Comprehensive Natural Products II, 2010-03-05. This work presents a definitive interpretation of the current status of and future trends in natural products, a dynamic field at the intersection of chemistry and biology concerned with isolation, identification, structure elucidation, and chemical characteristics of naturally occurring compounds such as pheromones, carbohydrates, nucleic acids, and enzymes. With more than 1 800 color figures, Comprehensive Natural Products II features 100% new material and complements rather than replaces the original work. 1999. Reviews the accumulated efforts of chemical and biological research to understand living organisms and their distinctive effects on health and medicine. Stimulates new ideas among the established natural products research community which includes chemists, biochemists, biologists, botanists, and pharmacologists. Informs and inspires students and newcomers to the field with accessible content in a range of delivery formats. Includes 100% new content with more than 6 000 figures, 1 3 of these in color, and 40 000 references to the primary literature for a thorough examination of the field. Highlights new research and innovations concerning living organisms and their distinctive role in our understanding and improvement of human health, genomics, ecology, environment, and more. Adds to the rich body of work that is the first edition, which will be available for the first time in a convenient online format giving researchers complete access to authoritative Natural Products content.

Making Connections Leah Mason, 1993.

Cultural and Spiritual Values of Biodiversity United Nations Environment Programme, 1999. Weaving together philosophical, historical, legal, scientific, and personal viewpoints, this book gives a rich sample of the vast web which makes up our cultural, spiritual, and social diversity. The volume highlights the central importance of cultural and spiritual values in the appreciation and preservation of all life and argues that these values give us a true reflection of worth. It demonstrates how many cultures see Nature as an extension of society and how sensitive stewardship is an integral part of existence. The book covers language and how cognition and speech encode indigenous knowledge systems, are critical for preservation of diversity, the complex issue of indigenous people and the problems of preserving their relationships both with and within their societies, voices of the world, expressions of concern and disquiet over the declining world diversity, holistic health practices where environment and diet are integrated into indigenous
