Joint Admission Board 2014 2015 In Kenya:

Equality in Kenya's 2010 Constitution Victoria Miyandazi, 2021-02-25 This book makes a significant contribution to the ongoing global conversations on the various understandings of equality It illuminates the many ways in which diverse equality guarantees clash or are interrelated It also sets out principled approaches on how they can be coherently interpreted to address the myriad inequalities in Kenya Taking a comparative approach the book considers how other jurisdictions including the United States United Kingdom Canada South Africa India and Botswana have approached the conceptualisation interpretation and application of various equality concepts The book focuses on important issues such as transformative constitutionalism in relation to the interpretation of Kenya's 2010 Constitution expanding the list of enumerated grounds for non discrimination affirmative action accommodating religious and cultural diversity versus gender equality the interrelation between socio economic rights and status based equality

Advancing Africa's Sustainable Development Alain L. Fymat, 2018-11-14 While many African countries lag behind the rest of the industrialised world in scientific and medical research and development the situation is progressively improving This is why the Society for the Advancement of Science in Africa was established to contribute to economic advancement and sustainability through science research education and innovation This book provides a selection of papers from the Advancement of Science in Africa's fourth annual conference The conference was held under the overarching theme of science technology and innovation in Africa with several important sub themes including but not limited to improving health research and disease surveillance education collaborating in research responding to epidemic diseases with high mortality in Africa and promoting women's interest in science careers The collection illustrates how although the chapter contributors come from various countries and universities representing their own academic research they all share a common interest in advancing science technology and innovation in Africa

Issues of Governance, Security, and Development in Contemporary Africa Mohamed Saliou Camara, Alem Hailu, Sabella O. Abidde, 2023-12-15 Governance security and development are three critical components of a dialectical nexus that is both dominant and determinant for any objective and fruitful quest for the understanding of the trajectory of a country a region or in the case of Africa a continent from a colonial past to a neocolonial and meta colonial present and toward a future of strategic optimal independence and self reliance That colonial past and the ensuing neocolonial and meta colonial present have made these critical components and the dialectical nexus that they form particularly challenging for the African continent For this reason Issues of Governance Security and Development in Contemporary Africa offers an in depth interdisciplinary analysis of the challenges that contemporary Africa faces within these critical areas as well as the resources and prospects that the continent possesses and can leverage to overcome the said challenges Using case studies involving a range of countries across the continent Mohamed Saliou Camara Alem Hailu and Sabella O Abidde argue that Africa needs to decolonize the terms of reference that guide its nation building statecraft and national development agenda in ways that will facilitate the establishment of viable systems of governance and security and the promotion of genuine development Kenya Yearbook ,2011 Open Access Implications for Sustainable Social, Political, and Economic Development Jain, Priti,Mnjama, Nathan,Oladokun, O.,2020-09-18 Open access publishing can be used as a strategic tool to avail access to information and achieve universal literacy Open access has gained importance over the past 15 years by making knowledge available to all without any barrier of affordability or restrictions on using this knowledge to inform and develop Open access contributes to scientific research excellence disseminates research results to a wider community and promotes multi disciplinary and collaborative research Issues of sustainable development and open access are major concerns in librarianship and information management particularly as the international library and information management community is focusing on how to contribute to the Sustainable Development Goals Open Access Implications for Sustainable Social Political and Economic Development is a pivotal reference source that provides an understanding of the concept of open access within the context of social political and economic development and deliberates the critical issues and challenges that face the implementation of open access and its impact on the global economy and sustainable development While highlighting a broad range of topics including digital scholarship open data and ethics this book is ideally designed for librarians information science professionals government officials policymakers academicians researchers and students Higher Education and Policy for Creative Economies in Africa Roberta Comunian,Brian J. Hracs,Lauren England,2020-11-04 The book reflects on the role of the creative economies in a range of African countries namely Ghana Kenya Nigeria South Africa and Uganda Chapters explore how creative economies emerge and can be supported in African countries The contributors focus on two key dimensions the role of higher education and the role of policy Firstly they consider the role of higher education and alternative forms of specialised education to reflect on how the creative aspirations of students and future creative workers of these countries are met and developed Secondly they explore the role of policy in supporting the agendas of the creative economy taking also into consideration the potential historical dimension of policy interventions and the impact of a lack of policy frameworks The book concludes by reflecting on how these two pillars of creative economy development which are usually taken for granted in studying creative economies in the global north need to be understood with their own specificity in the context of our selected case studies in Africa This book will be of interest to students scholars and professionals researching the creative economies in Africa across the humanities and social sciences All the royalties from the publication of this book will be donated to the not for profit organisation The Craft and Design Institute CDI <https://www.thecdi.org.za> in South Africa supporting capacity building for young creative practitioners from disadvantaged backgrounds Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Toyin Falola,Emmanuel M. Mbah,2023-08-29 Negotiating Identities in Contemporary Africa Gender Religion and Ethno cultural Identities explores the changing dynamics of identities in Africa with a focus on gender ethno cultural and religious identity Toyin Falola and Emmanuel M Mbah argue that because identity defines who we are as individuals or groups studies on African identities must focus on understanding the changing dynamics in the socio economic and political spheres in the continent These chapters cover subjects such as women s career identity gender roles and knowledge childlessness ethnocentrism and democracy cultural identity through theater Black identity in the diaspora and diasporic consciousness Using existing scholarship the chapters in this edited volume challenge our understanding of what identity entails and provide new discussions on the hitherto politicized historiography of some identities in Africa Gender

Inequalities Esra Ozdenerol,2021-02-22 Gender inequality is entrenched in the cultural political and market systems that operate at household community and national levels Global changes in market access climatic conditions and the availability of natural resources intensify disparities in income in assets and in power among genders This book aims to explain these gender dynamics at macro and micro levels through GIS and spatial analysis The first part of the book introduces key concepts of how to integrate GIS in gender inequality research The second part presents more in depth case studies carefully selected such as mapping gender based violence gender inequality in the labor force refugee mapping etc Official
