East-West Literary Imagination Yoshinobu Hakutani, 2017-06-30 This study traces the shaping presence of cultural interactions arguing that American literature has become a hybridization of Eastern and Western literary traditions Cultural exchanges between the East and West began in the early decades of the nineteenth century as American transcendentalists explored Eastern philosophies and arts Hakutani examines this influence through the works of Emerson Thoreau and Whitman He further demonstrates the East West exchange through discussions of the interactions by modernists such as Yone Noguchi Yeats Pound Camus and Kerouac Finally he argues that African American literature represented by Richard Wright Ralph Ellison Alice Walker Toni Morrison and James Emanuel is postmodern Their works exhibit their concerted efforts to abolish marginality and extend referentiality exemplifying the postmodern East West crossroads of cultures A fuller understanding of their work is gained by situating them within this cultural conversation The writings of Wright for example take on their full significance only when they are read not as part of a national literature but as an index to an evolving literature of cultural exchanges

Out of Touch Maureen F. Curtin, 2013-09-13 Out of Touch investigates how skin has become a crucial but disavowed figure in twentieth century literature theory and cultural criticism These discourses reveal the extent to which skin figures in the cultural effect of changes in visual technologies a development argued by critics to be at the heart of the contest between surface and depth and by extension Western globalization and identity politics The skin has a complex history as a metaphorical terrain over which ideological wars are fought identity is asserted through modification as in tattooing and meaning is inscribed upon the human being Yet even as interventions on the skin characterize much of this history fantasy and science fiction literature and film trumpet skin's passing in the cybernetic age and feminist theory calls for abandoning the skin as a hostile boundary

The Lever of Riches Joel Mokyr, 1992-04-09 In a world of supercomputers genetic engineering and fiber optics technological creativity is ever more the key to economic success But why are some nations more creative than others and why do some highly innovative societies such as ancient China or Britain in the industrial revolution pass into stagnation Beginning with a fascinating concise history of technological progress Mokyr sets the background for his analysis by tracing the major inventions and innovations that have transformed society since ancient Greece and Rome What emerges from this survey is often surprising the classical world for instance was largely barren of new technology the relatively backward society of medieval Europe bristled with inventions and the period between the Reformation and the Industrial Revolution was one of slow and unspectacular progress in technology despite the tumultuous developments associated with the Voyages of Discovery and the Scientific Revolution What were the causes of technological creativity Mokyr distinguishes between the relationship of inventors and their physical environment which determined their willingness to challenge nature and the social environment which determined the openness to new ideas He discusses a long list of such factors showing how they interact to help or hinder a nation s creativity and then illustrates them by a number of detailed comparative studies examining the differences between Europe and China between classical antiquity and medieval Europe and between Britain and the rest of Europe during the industrial revolution He examines such aspects as the role of the state the Chinese gave up a millennium wide lead in shipping to the Europeans for example when an Emperor banned large ocean going vessels the impact of science as well as religion politics and even nutrition He questions the importance of such commonly cited factors as the spill over benefits of war the abundance of natural resources life expectancy and labor costs Today an ever greater number of industrial economies are competing in the global market locked in a struggle that revolves around technological ingenuity The Lever of Riches with its keen analysis derived from a sweeping survey of creativity throughout history offers telling insights into the question of how Western economies can maintain and developing nations can unlock their creative potential      Masterplots Two Tyrone Williams, 2009 Williams presents 367 three to four page essays 101 commissioned new for this edition on significant African American works of literature from Afrocentricity The Theory of Social Change a work of cultural criticism by Molefi K Asante to Zami A New Spelling of My Name the biomythography of Audre Lorde The works covered range from early colonial era writings through works of the beginning of the 21st century Most of the essays address a single long work while others review an author's work in a certain genre such as short fiction poetry essays or speeches Each entry begins with information on title subtitle author's name and birth death dates type of work date of first publication and production For fiction information is also presented on type of plot setting and principal characters The essays then describe events or contents of the work and address broad themes and meanings connected to the work Essays on fiction works include discussion of main character or characters while nonfiction work includes sections on form and content and analysis All essays end with discussion of critical context Also included with the essays are annotated bibliographies on secondary sources The final volume includes indexes organized by type of work title and authors Examples of works covered in addition to the two already mentioned include Ain't I a Woman by bell hooks The Autobiography of Malcolm X Babel 17 by Samuel R Delany The Black Muslims in America by C Eric Lincoln The Content of Our Character by Shelby Steele Kindred by Octavia E Butler Roots by Alex Haley The Signifying Monkey by Henry Louis Gates Up from Slavery by Booker T Washington and Walkin the Dog by Walter Mosley Annotation 2009 Book News Inc Portland OR booknews.com      ESQ., 2005      Critical Survey of Long Fiction: Ralph Ellison-Jamake Highwater, 2000      Twentieth Century Literary Criticism Linda Pavlovski, 2002-03 Presents literary criticism on the works of twentieth century writers of all genres nations and cultures Critical essays are selected from leading sources including published journals magazines books reviews diaries interviews radio and television transcripts pamphlets and scholarly papers      African American Writers: June Jordan to Richard Wright Valerie Smith, 2001 Contains biographical and critical essays on the work of important African American writers      The Oxford Companion to African American Literature William L.
