Teaching for a Tolerant World, Grades 9-12 Leatrice Rabinsky, 1999 A collection of essays and resource to help high school English teachers adapt their own classroom lessons for teaching about genocide and intolerance Inspirational and provocative essays by teachers reflect on classroom experiences and present approaches to teaching various works exploring topics such as racial prejudice the Salem witch trials and the Holocaust Methods used include conflict resolution and peer dialogue journals A final section offers lists of print nonprint electronic and organizational resources Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Moving Beyond Personal Loss to Societal Grieving Michelle M. Falter, Steven T. Bickmore, 2018-11-23 Moving Beyond Personal Loss to Societal Grieving considers how secondary English language arts teachers and teacher educators can sensitively and thoughtfully teach pieces of literature in their classrooms in which large scale deaths are a significant if not central aspect of the texts As mass shootings and violence against black and brown bodies increase and issues such as AIDS war and genocide remain important to discuss as part of a shared critical and social consciousness this book provides resources for educators to directly tackle and discuss these topics through the texts they read in their ELA classrooms Whether it is canonical or contemporary literature middle grades or young adult literature fiction nonfiction or graphic novels literature provides a vehicle to have these difficult but needed conversations about not only the personal but social effects of death and grief in our society Each chapter in this book focuses on 1 2 texts and provides practical activities that ask students to engage with death dying and loss through writing assignments projects activities and discussion prompts in order to build empathy understanding and develop critically minded and engaged students Moving Beyond Personal Loss to Societal Grieving will be of interest to English language arts teachers teacher educators librarians and scholars who wish to explore with their students the complex emotions that revolve around discussing deaths that occur in literature Teaching Death and Dying Christopher M Moreman, 2008-10-03 The academic study of death rose to prominence during the 1960s Courses on some aspect of death and dying can now be found at most institutions of higher learning These courses tend to stress the psycho social aspects of grief and bereavement however ignoring the religious elements inherent to the subject This collection is the first to address the teaching of courses on death and dying from a religious studies perspective The Spirit that Moves Us Laura R. Petovello, Lorry Stillman, Rachel Quenk, Holocaust Human Rights Center of Maine, 1994 For high school students who can be both impassioned and impressionable the study of the Holocaust encourages discussion about prejudice and justice shame and dignity hopelessness and faith and engages them in debate about the moral and ethical behavior of humankind Introducing students to the personal narrative fiction and poetry allows them to hear a narrative voice recount not only the facts of this historical time but also helps them understand the emotions surrounding the events of the Holocaust The chapters on music and art act as supplemental material for lessons on the literature By sharing their ideas debating the issues and researching the historical facts students learn to find their true and honest voices and to listen to the voices around them This resource guide s lesson plans and suggestions for writing and research projects are designed to reach all levels of academic study Featured stories and books include The Last of the Just The Quay A Scrap of Time Stones from the River Seed of Sarah Night This Way for the Gas Ladies and Gentlemen If Not Now When The Shawl and Maus All chapters have a brief plot summary of the piece of literature and include analysis of symbol imagery language and style and their roles in developing a historical understanding of the Holocaust years Additional chapters explore the art and music of the Holocaust The guide contains a select bibliography and research sources glossaries character lists and suggested reading for teachers and students A list of documentary and artistic films is also included

Encyclopedia of Judaism Sara E. Karesh,Mitchell M. Hurvitz,2005 An illustrated A to Z reference containing over 800 entries providing information on the theology people historical events institutions and movements related to the religion of Judaism
