How Social Movements Imagine Bobby Luthra Sinha, 2024-08-30 This book examines how micro contextual issues inspire collective social action forms against everyday situations of crises and crimes through an inter disciplinary ethnographic and comparative research conducted among Bishnois and Indian South Africans Exploring the role of the publics that practise and mobilise their social movement imaginations the work delves into peoples ability to move beyond their immediate contexts and politicise multiple social spaces and discursive spheres around them to project their causes Mapping an anti poaching movement spearheaded by the Bishnois of Western Rajasthan in India and an anti substance abuse movement led by the historical Indian diaspora of South Africa the author argues that such contemporary forms of organised social action replete with alternative frames symbols and repertoires possess key requisites to be understood as the Newer Social Movements of the Global South The volume will be of great interest to scholars and researchers of social and protest movements migration and diaspora studies political science social anthropology and ethnography

Home economics Sacha Hepburn, 2022-08-16 Domestic service has long been one of the largest forms of urban employment across southern Africa Home economics provides the first comprehensive history of this essential sector in the decades following independence and the end of apartheid Focusing on Lusaka and drawing wider comparisons the book traces how Black workers and employers adapted existing models of domestic service as part of broader responses to changing gendered employment patterns economic decline and endemic poverty It reveals how kin based domestic service gradually displaced wage labour and how women and girl workers came to dominate kin based and waged domestic service with profound consequences for labour regulation and worker organising Theoretically innovative and empirically rich the book provides essential insights into debates about gender work and urban economies that are critical to understanding southern Africa s post colonial and post apartheid history

Mapping Society Laura Vaughan, 2018-09-24 From a rare map of yellow fever in eighteenth century New York to Charles Booth s famous maps of poverty in nineteenth century London an Italian racial zoning map of early twentieth century Asmara to a map of wealth disparities in the banlieues of twenty first century Paris Mapping Society traces the evolution of social cartography over the past two centuries In this richly illustrated book Laura Vaughan examines maps of ethnic or religious difference poverty and health inequalities demonstrating how they not only serve as historical records of social enquiry but also constitute inscriptions of social patterns that have been etched deeply on the surface of cities The book covers themes such as the use of visual rhetoric to change public opinion the evolution of sociology as an academic practice changing attitudes to physical disorder and the complexity of segregation as an urban phenomenon While the focus is on historical maps the narrative carries the discussion of the spatial dimensions of social cartography forward to the present day showing how disciplines such as public health crime science and urban planning chart spatial data in their current practice Containing examples of space syntax analysis alongside full colour maps and photographs this volume will appeal to all those interested in the long term forces that shape how people live in cities      The Routledge Handbook of Soft Power Naren Chitty,Lilian Ji,Gary D Rawnsley,Craig Hayden,2016-11-03 The Routledge Handbook of Soft Power is the first volume to offer a comprehensive and detailed picture of soft power and associated forms of public diplomacy The terms soft power and public diplomacy have enormous currency in media and policy discourse yet despite all the attention the terms remain conceptually ambiguous for analysts of international influence The consequence is that the terms have survived as powerful yet criticized frames for influence Divided into two main parts Part I outlines theoretical problems methodological questions the cultural imperative and the technological turn within the study of soft power and Part II focuses on bringing the theory into practice through detailed discussion of key case studies from across the Americas Europe the Middle East Africa and Asia This innovative handbook provides a definitive resource for students and scholars seeking to familiarize themselves with cutting edge debates and future research on soft power and will be of interest to those studying and researching in areas such as international relations public diplomacy and international communication      Deepening the EU-China Partnership Mario Telò,Ding Chun,Zhang Xiaotong,2017-11-14 The China EC EU relationship started in 1975 is a highly institutionalized multidimensional and complex but to some extent controversial international partnership It is also challenged within the current unstable world This book addresses the convergences and the differences ideational political institutional and interests related between China and the EU by a collective interaction between Chinese and European scholars Among other things the book assesses sectoral bilateral dialogue and focuses on the interplay between internal complexity and external policies discusses ideational divergences in international law and rule of law and in many relevant policy fields Furthermore it compares sustainable growth policies explores trade and investment controversies and negotiations human rights dialogue and addresses environment and climate change policies This text will be of key interest to EU studies and politics China studies and more broadly to area Asian studies and international relations global governance

Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 (Volume 4) Union Of International Associations,Union of International Associations,2014-09-17 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography Volume 4 cites over 46 000 publications and information resources supplied by international organizations and provides nearly 18 000 research citations under 40 subject headings This volume also includes a research bibliography on international organizations and transnational associations      Tribing and Untribing the Archive Carolyn Hamilton,Nessa Leibhammer,2016 These volumes track how the domain of the tribal and traditional was marked out and came to be sharply distinguished from modernity how it was denied a changing history and an archive and was endowed instead with a timeless culture These volumes also offer strategies for engaging with the materials differently from the interventions effected in contemporary artworks to the inserting of nameless timeless objects of material culture into histories of individualized and politicized experience Publisher s description      General Catalogue of Printed Books to 1955 British Museum.
