Data Management Margaret E. Henderson, 2016-10-25 Libraries organize information and data is information so it is natural that librarians should help people who need to find organize use or store data Organizations need evidence for decision making data provides that evidence Inventors and creators build upon data collected by others All around us people need data Librarians can help increase the relevance of their library to the research and education mission of their institution by learning more about data and how to manage it Data Management will guide readers through Understanding data management basics and best practices Using the reference interview to help with data management Writing data management plans for grants Starting and growing a data management service Finding collaborators inside and outside the library Collecting and using data in different disciplines Research, Quality, Competitiveness Attilio

Stajano, 2008-09-22 The European Union EU was launched as a response to the economic dominance of the United States and to a lesser degree the Soviet Union The nations of Western Europe were too small to compete against large scale and diversified economies on their own Six countries eventually expanding to 27 and counting took a series of steps toward progressively deeper integration the removal of internal tariffs the construction of a common external tariff the elimination of many but not all non tariff barriers leading to a single market and the adoption of a common currency by 15 of the member states The EU today equals and even exceeds the U S on many key indicators of performance In the process two similar but nonetheless divergent models of social and economic life stand in contrast with each other The U S is more committed to capitalism and does little to dilute its harsh edges while the nations of Europe support wider social safety nets and more active regulation of commercial activity to mute the crueler aspects of the free market Until recently the economic dynamism of the U S called into question whether the so called European social model was sustainable in an era of globalization The EU was slipping in competitiveness and was being challenged by new global powerhouses like China and India Although the U S economy has slowed there is little indication that European countries are capable of leveraging the situation to their advantage
