Maths Socr 24 May 2013:

Life by Algorithms Catherine Besteman, Hugh Gusterson, 2019-05-23 Essays on the downsides dysfunctions and dangers of automated decision making An excellent survey of the algorithmically managed life Choice The phone systems that businesses use to screen calls The link between student standardized test scores and public schools access to resources The algorithms that regulate patient diagnoses and reimbursements to doctors The impenetrable corporate bureaucracy that can drive customers in need of help up the wall or drive them to suicide The storage sorting and analysis of massive amounts of information have enabled the automation of decision making at an unprecedented level Meanwhile computers have offered a model of cognition that increasingly shapes our approach to the world The proliferation of robo-processes is the result as editors Catherine Besteman and Hugh Gusterson observe in this rich and wide ranging volume which features contributions from a distinguished cast of scholars in anthropology communications international studies and political science Though automatic processes are designed to be engines of rational systems the stories in Life by Algorithms reveal how they can in fact produce absurd inflexible or even dangerous outcomes Joining the call for algorithmic transparency the contributors bring exceptional sensitivity to everyday sociality into their critique to better understand how the perils of modern technology affect finance medicine education housing the workplace food production public space and emotions not as separate problems but as linked manifestations of a deeper defect in the fundamental ordering of our society The Machine Stops E M Forster's 1909 science fiction story tells the tale of a human society collapsing when the technology upon which it has become dependent fails Think of this volume as The Machine Starts a collection of unsettling ethnographic accounts of the rise of algorithmic governance A necessary and sobering call to arms Stefan Helmreich Massachusetts Institute of Technology Contributors include Catherine Besteman Alex Blanchette Robert W Gehl Hugh Gusterson Catherine Lutz Ann Lutz Fernandez Joseph Masco Sally Engle Merry Keesha M Middlemass Noelle Stout Susan J Terrio Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events

Responsibilities of the Non-State Actor in Armed Conflict and the Market Place Noemi Gal-Or, Cedric Ryngaert, Math Noortmann, 2015-05-12 The central question of this pioneer work on the responsibility of non state actors NSAs and the consequences thereof is To whom are such actors in particular armed opposition groups and business corporations accountable for their actions in armed conflict and in peace times Does responsibility in international law apply to these NSAs qua groups While much has been written about NSAs rights and participation in the global theatre as well as the responsibility of the state and international organisations for wrongful acts by NSAs scant attention has been paid to questions of NSA organizational responsibility in spite of their potential to wreak international havoc This volume offers innovative insights into this unexplored territory by analyzing responsibility questions from both theoretical and empirical perspectives School Neuropsychology Margaret Semrud-Clikeman, Catherine A. Fiorello, James B. Hale, 2025-11-11 Now in a revised and expanded second edition reflecting key developments in understanding brain behavior relationships this accessible book helps school practitioners integrate neuropsychological principles into data based decision making The expert authors present a framework for comprehensively evaluating students cognitive strengths and weaknesses to aid in developing individualized interventions Chapters elucidate the neuropsychological processes involved in reading math and writing disabilities neurodevelopmental and mental health disorders and medical issues that may affect learning and behavior In a convenient large size format the book includes concrete assessment and intervention guidance case examples In Depth boxes and reproducible and downloadable tools New to This Edition Chapters on genetic disorders and chronic medical disorders An expanded three dimensional understanding of brain networks and brain functioning Updated neuroscientific and school psychology research New and updated case studies ICMLG2016-4th International Conference on Management, Leadership and Governance Dmitry Vasilenko and Natalia Khazieva, Journal of the Senate of the United States of America United States. Congress. Senate, E-Participation in Smart Cities: Technologies and Models of Governance for Citizen Engagement Manuel Pedro Rodríguez Bolívar, Laura Alcaide Muñoz, 2018-08-01 This book analyzes e participation in smart cities In recent decades information and communication technologies ICT have played a key role in the democratic political and governance process by allowing easier interaction between governments and citizens and the increased ability of citizens to participate in the production chain of public services E participation plays an important role in the development of smart cities and smart communities but it has not yet been extensively studied This book fills that gap by combining empirical and theoretical research to analyze actual practices of citizen involvement in smart cities and build a solid framework for successful e participation in smart cities The book is divided into three parts Part I discusses smart technologies and their role in improving e participation in smart cities Part II deals with models of e participation in smart cities and the organization issues affecting the implementation of e participation these chapters analyze the efficiency of governance models in relation to the establishment of smart cities Part III proposes incentives to motivate increased participation by governments and citizenry within the smart cities context Written by an international panel of experts and practitioners this book will be a convenient source of information on e participation in smart cities and will be valuable to academics researchers policy makers public managers citizens international organizations and anyone who has a stake in enhancing citizen engagement in smart cities Public health and health research data: Availability, needs and challenges Carla Sofia e Sá Farinha, Andreia Silva Costa, Paulo Jorge Nogueira, 2024-01-03 Dictionary Catalog of the Research Libraries of the New York Public Library, 1911-1971 New York Public Library.
