

What have you learnt from your audience feedback?

After finishing our project, as well as evaluating our production personally from a professional point of view, in order to evaluate its success fully, we needed to attain feedback from viewers. This involved showing our final production to both our target audience, in addition to other social demographic sectors who may be exposed to our video if it were a real industry piece. Elikem and I devised a questionnaire for viewers to complete after seeing the video, allowing expression of their own opinion on the video, whilst also answering any technical questions that we had. We thought that it would be beneficial to ask a range of viewers what they thought as this would give us a broader spectrum of opinions, and hopefully from this we would gain more of an understanding into how we could improve our work if we were to do the project again. Furthermore, it would be insightful to see how different marketing strategies and ideas affected the appeal of the star to specific groups of people.

Mostly, feedback was very positive, and excluding the smaller details, most people felt that the final production was very professional. The best response came from our creativity in terms of originality in props, makeup and costuming ideas, especially from our aimed audience. A memorable feature for the majority of viewers when asked to state their favourite sequence seemed to be the box idea, as it was 'amazing and fitted to the genre'. Although this boosted my confidence in the originality of our work, I am still aware of the factors that contributed to the lack of professionalism in the production. As one person pointed out, the syncing was 'a bit slow at times', which spoilt the flow and rhythmic quality of our work. Our target demographic being teenagers and young adults, especially females, our most valuable feedback came from what their opinions were. Whilst most felt that our work was a clear representation of the pop genre, and felt that the artist portrayed a realistic yet relatable star persona, some felt that there were quite a few stars with similar images already in the public eye, therefore making her somewhat of a déjà vu personality. This was understandable as our inspiration came from
