The Lost Woodlands of Ancient Nasca David Beresford-Jones, 2011-06-30 The vanished civilization of the Nasca is famous for its enigmatic giant ritual pathways through the desert pampa of Peru But how and why did the civilization collapse This new and detailed archaeological study argues that deforestation of river valleys in particular the loss of the huarango tree may have been to blame

Lost in the Middle? Wesley J. Wildman, Stephen Chapin Garner, 2009-11-24 There exists a deep and broad population of Christians who feel the labels of liberal and evangelical both describe their faith and limit their expression of it By working to reclaim the traditional historical meanings of these terms and showing how they complement rather than oppose each other Wesley Wildman and Stephen Chapin Garner stake a claim for the moderate Christian voice in today's polarized society Lost in the Middle guides readers through a process of diagnosis and articulation offering complementary perspectives on the phenomenon problem and promise of Christians with both liberal and evangelical instincts The authors show how individuals and institutions alike can reclaim and celebrate the highest virtues of both liberal and evangelical Christianity and how doing so can lead to the creation of authentic and vibrant communities of faith Pastors congregational leaders seminarians and all thoughtful Christians will learn how truly moderate Christianity can unite the compassionate openness and social activism of liberal Christianity with the magnetism and spiritual fervor of evangelical Christianity You may feel lost in the middle but you are not alone there The middle may be the place where you

Theory Using the American Case Kirby L. Wedekind,2025-02-28 This book asserts that there exists a causal relationship between identity interest and the exercise of power The work defines power as the ability to satisfy oneself which makes power contingent upon belief It also dissects the concepts of identity interest and power to reveal how each works and relate to the others This analysis creates a new theory of power using constructivism informed by critical theory departing from neorealist and neoliberal perspectives The work uses the United States to test the theory by examining US national identity interest and exercises of power A deconstruction of American Exceptionalism proceeds three case studies and runs as a theme to connect each unifying the work A military operation in 2016 against the Islamic State in Libya the 2014 Russian annexation of Crimea and the whiplash caused by US participation in the 2015 Paris Agreement serve as the three case studies for analyzing US identity interest and power through the theory This work proposes a new way of understanding power based on constructivism and informed by critical theory that applies to interpersonal and international relationships Every relation is a power relation and power is the ability to satisfy oneself This book provides insight into the underlying causes and machinations that transpire within every kind of social relation This is a significant shift in how power is understood and applied in politics the military business and interpersonal relationships This book seeks to provide the reader with greater and clearer understanding of themselves the world in which they live and why it exists as such
