Lost In Translation Misadventures In English Abroad:

Lost in Translation Charlie Croker, 2011-07-31 Lost in Translation Misadventures in English Abroad affectionately demonstrates the very best and worst instances of genuine grammar gargling from around the world Still Lost in Translation Charlie Croker, 2008-09-04 Have you ever arrived in a hotel room and been baffled by the information provided Beware of your luggage In your room you will find a minibar which is filled with alcoholics Do not throw urine around Have you ever been to a restaurant and wondered what on earth to order Bored Meat Stew Lorry Driver Soup Kiss Lorraine Have you ever arrived in an airport and found that the supposedly helpful signs just make you feel more lost You are required to declare all sorts of private things Departure Bus stop Car rental Please buy your ticket consciously Charlie Croker has and in 2006 he gathered together what he thought was the definitive collection of English language howlers for his bestselling book Lost in Translation But he reckoned without the great British public Not only was the book a smash hit it also opened the floodgates to a deluge of emails and letters stuffed full of further mistranslations and mutilated phrases From a leaflet from the Museum of Rasputin in Russia which is apparently situated in a house that belonged a pilot fish Zubov to a song title on a pirated Pink Floyd CD Come Fartably Numb the scrambled sentences just kept flooding in At the same time Charlie has continued his travels and picked up gems of his own With such a wealth of material a sequel wasn't just a necessity it was a public service and Still Lost in Translation is even more addictive whimsical and side splittingly hilarious than the first book

Løst in Tränsłatio[pi] Charlie Croker, 2006 In today's world no self-respecting English language enthusiast could have failed to notice the frequent and flagrant abuse of our native tongue by pesky foreigners Forgetting for a moment the fact that many nations speak our language better than we do Lost in Translation features hundreds of genuine original and utterly ridiculous examples of the misadventures in English discovered all over the world by the author and his intrepid team of researchers Everything from hotel signs to baffling advertisements such as the German beauty product offering a Cream shower for pretentious skin or the Japanese bar that boasts Special cocktails for ladies with nuts or the French warning at a swimming pool Swimming is forbidden in the absence of the saviour Published in paperback for the first time this autumn Lost in Translation demonstrates how widely the English language has travelled though unfortunately some of it seems to have got a bit scrambled en route Utterly Lost in Translation - Even More Misadventures in English Abroad

Charlie Croker, 2015-06-04 The search for the globe's funniest language howler continues apace As with his two previous volumes Charlie Croker has scoured Kazakhstan hotel foyers South Korean supermarkets and Argentinian airports plucking from the mistranslation tree only the very choicest of fruits for your delectation There is the French hotel advising that pets are not allowed in the breakfast The bar in Rome requesting that you use the arse tray for your fags And the bookshop in China boasting a section titled sports and hobbits Who can tell what the Japanese camera manufacturer had in mind when they included beware the weatherly swell in their instructions Who would brave the Barcelona hotel where the pillows have firmness to take care of your cervicals Who could resist the Austrian restaurant offering Saddle of Rabbit in a vortex sheet

 This delightful book is an affectionate trawl through the gems that arise when people all round the world graciously indulge English speakers shunning of any language but their own In fact some of the gems are home grown a Hertfordshire restaurant warns that any person consumed in the restaurant without paying will be prospected So eat some chicken soap in Bulgaria drink Jack Denials in Italy stay at the Budapest hotel offering non sliding mates for the bathtubs and find yourself Utterly Lost in Translation Before use please read this instruction for god s sake and keep well Please put on the ocular for use safe Keep well for fear of danger Electrical wire cutters China You are kindly requested not to reach for a table before going through the cashier Restaurant ItalyPraise for Charlie Croker s Lost in Translation and Still Lost in Translation Too
